COULDN'T STAND IT

The American Trust Company Closes Its Doors.

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—The American Loan and Trust company, which has withdrawn a run for several days, closed its doors at 12:30 today, the immediate cause being a demand for a large amount of money made by a savings bank of this city, which the trust company could not meet.

There were five banks, one in Syracuse, one in Rochester and another outside bank, the names of which are not known, demanded payment of deposits amounting to $2,000,000.

STILL UNSETTLED

The Arbitrators seem to Have Made a Mess of It.

There is a flattering prospect ahead of a bitter fight and the unearthing of the great underlying facts in the case of John Sullivan against the Grand Lodge Chicago. Sullivan it seems is a contractor and builder and a member of the Builders' Exchange.

MORE MASONRY NEXT WEEK

Next week promises to be a busy one among speculative Masons of high standing.

The occasion is the annual meeting of the higher contingents to the great and underlying fact in the case of John Sullivan against the Grand Lodge Chicago.

CONVICTING

DETROIT PAVEMENTS VIEWED BY DEFEVING OPTICS.

The Assistant City Surveyor's Statement on the subject of the city's pavements, the Committee on Streets—A Detroit Man's Views.

Assistant City Engineer Ames, who went with the silic-barytic junket to Detroit, has filed a report of his trip in which he says:

"Mr. H. A. Collar, city engineer, at your request and that of Mr. David J. Preston, president of the board of public works, I accompanied the common council to Detroit, Mich., on Feb. 12, 1891, to examine the silic-barytic paving material."

"The weather was very unfavorable for the work, and the material was not used in any quantity. The material was covered, except in small spots, with a coat of oil and snow."

MUSIC AND DRAMA

A Minor Graveler in one of the best lectures before the public today.

"The Fat Contributor" and editor of that famous paper, Sixty Sixers, has tickled the risibilities of the people all over the country and he has largely done so with his inimitable humorous lectures. He has never visited Grand Rapids, so the people here can not appreciate his lectures.

George Kennan, one of the most popular platform orators of the day, will deliver his celebrated lecture, "Russian Political Economy," at Hartman's hall, February 23.

His lecture will be illustrated by lantern slides, and will be a thoroughly interesting one. Mr. Kennan, who is a writer of some note, will give his lecture at the Club after the reception by the Club after the

NO PASSENGERS KILLED

Had Wreck on the Illinois Central Near Jackson, Tenn.

JACKSON, Tenn., Feb. 18.—The south-bound Illinois Central passenger train was wrecked 40 miles south of here this morning. The train was the passenger train which left Chicago yesterday at 3:35 p. m. When near Medina, Tenn., at which it left this morning, the train jumped the track and the coaches overturned and caught fire.

Fortunately all the passengers were rescued from the burning coaches before the flames reached them. An approaching freight train was flagged and the engine was attached to the sleeping car and towed out of the wreck. The baggage car and a newlyweds' car sustained serious injuries. Several passengers were injured, but it is thought none was seriously injured. The wreck was caused by a broken rail.

THE CITIZENS MEETING

Stille-Harvey's Pavement Will Not Be Used on Monroe Street This Year.

The meeting of the property owners on Monroe street held last evening in the presence of the city hall for the purpose of discussing the subject of paving that thoroughfare, was attended not only by the property owners, but also by a majority of the aldermen and members of the board of public works.

Resolved, First—That vertical curbs wherever granite blocks have not already been laid on the city hall for the purpose of discussing the subject of paving that thoroughfare, was attended not only by the property owners, but also by a majority of the aldermen and members of the board of public works.

County Clerk Harvey Points Out a Defect in the Marriage License Law.

LAURENS, Pa. 18.—Lots of local legislation occupied the attention of the legislators of the house this morning, but Grand Rapids did not figure in any part of it. Several gentlemen signified their intention of introducing important bills before the 50 day limit expires, among them Rep. H. Johnson of Shawnee a bill appropriating $10,000 to assist the soldiers to visit the G. A. encampment at Detroit.

Rep. Houghton of Geneva has a bill in preparation removing the common law remedy of marital coercion, and the contracts made by married women shall have the same force and effect as contracts made by unmarried women.

Representative Pich, of Kent, will introduce a bill repealing the act of an amatory law of 1875, whereby the fund collected to pay for sheep killed was made payable to the county treasury.

Mr. Clapp, of Calhoun, introduced a bill to be taken upon either in villages in this State, the power to construct, acquire by purchase, operate and maintain street railways, and works for the purpose of supplying such cities and villages with electric power, with gas, electric and other lights.

The Bosford "oleo" bill passed the House this morning. In the afternoon, many bills of a local nature were considered in committee of the whole. Little other business was transacted.

Upon the assembling of the senate this afternoon Senator Milnes rose and contradicted a report which purported to be true, to the effect that the senate had passed a bill to amend the course of medical laws by laid in the gutter. That the present course of medical laws by laid in the gutter was a mistake, and that the senate had passed a bill to amend the course of medical laws by laid in the gutter.

Senator Sharp rose to explain. He said that the report was a mistake, and that the senate had passed a bill to amend the course of medical laws by laid in the gutter. ROMANCE AND REALITY.

TOURGE'S CONTRIBUTION TO THE SOCIAL MOVEMENT.

The serious problem presented by the increase in the army of women workers is what it does to the social movement.

"Mural Eastman, Christian Socialist," by Alton W. Tourge, author of "A Fool's Errand," "Bricks Without Straws," and "The Social Movement."

And yet he is not afraid to state the truth plainly. The writer "socialist" and "socialist" could have been left out of the story and not have lessened its value...

The character is beautiful, and yet not in the slightest degree unnatural. It is what would be the right instead of the wrong of the world.

It is hard to get working women to realize their own position and to drive their natural protest and provides out of their occupations by accepting...

opportunity upon another's will is half a slave.

Among the important and serious problems which confront the promoters of labor's interests is that which deals with women's work.

It is to the credit of organized workingmen, especially in this country, that they see the situation in a proper light.

In this respect we seem to be in advance of England. There the unions generally have not taken the broader ground, and women workers are not included in their special fields.

Recently Miss Van Etten had this to say on the subject: Some years ago salesmen, bookkeepers, stenographers, typewriters, and clerks...

she wore plumpers.

"Never heard of plumpers?" asked a lady friend of mine the other day.

"Well," she replied "we were calling at the time at the home of a mutual friend."

"Why, what on earth are you laughing at?" said I. "And, by the way," she said, "I am not laughing."

TRIBUTE FROM THE BAR.
Resolutions on the Death of Justice Housman.
The committee appointed by the superior court to draft resolutions expressive of regret on the death of Justice Housman, has submitted the report to the superior court yesterday in the following resolution, which were ordered printed upon the records of the court:

Resolved, That the sudden and unexpected death of Hon. Justice Housman, who has been so long and so variously connected with the business interests and advancement of the city, fully justifies the superior court in paying tribute to the memory of the deceased.

Resolved, That in his death our people have lost one of their most worthy and distinguished citizens; one of their most prominent and ablest citizens; one of their most successful and energetic business men; and one whose noble and generous life has been a constant inspiration to his fellow citizens.

Resolved, That we sympathize deeply and sincerely with the family of the deceased, and tender to them our heartfelt sorrow in their present bereavement.

Resolved, That we deeply deplore his death, and earnestly hope that the death of the deceased may be a warning to all men to be faithful and true to the duties of their station.

Resolved, That the memory of the deceased be ever held in reverence and honor by his fellow citizens, and that his noble and generous life be a constant inspiration to all men.

Resolved, That the superior court pay tribute to the memory of the deceased, and that the same be printed upon the records of the court.

Resolved, That the superior court pay tribute to the memory of the deceased, and that the same be printed upon the records of the court.

Resolved, That the superior court pay tribute to the memory of the deceased, and that the same be printed upon the records of the court.
