

MOBILIZATION FOR DEMOCRACY

CHIEF OF POLICE HENNESSY'S MURDER AVENGED.

The Wretched Italian Prisoners Dragged From Their Cells and Shot or Hanged by the Enraged Citizens.

NEW ORLEANS, March 14.—Eighty thousand infuriated citizens rose up in their wrath this morning and wreaked summary vengeance on the men they considered guilty of the murder of Police Chief Hennessy. The excitement throughout the city over the miscarriage of justice in the case of the alleged Sicilian assassins leaped beyond its bounds.

The parish prison was surrounded by a mob of thousands of the Sicilian assassins taken out and lynched. Some were shot; others were hanged. The following were the victims:

- PIETRO POLITI.
ANTONIO MASTROTERO.
ANTONIO SCAFFIDI.
JOSEPH MACCHIA.
ANTONIO A. MANCHESI.
ANTONIO ANTONETTI.

The verdict of the jury rendered yesterday, acquitting six of the accused prisoners and reporting a disagreement as to three others, was received with general disapproval and rage and for a moment it was apprehended that the mob would be on the rampage against the prisoners at once, but this was averted for the time. The evening newspaper extras were filled with intimations that the jury had been corrupted and that they had secured the $75,000, and probably as much as $100,000, was contributed by Italians all over the country for a defense fund.

Thousands of dollars, it was said, came from New York, and farm laborers in this vicinity were being led head. These statements only served to infuriate the enraged populace still more, and as a consequence a call appeared in the morning papers, signed by prominent citizens, for a mass meeting to assemble at the City Hall at 10 o'clock to take steps to remedy the miscarriage of justice in the Hennessy case.

"Come prepared for action," concluding the injunction in the call. At 10 o'clock the hour of the meeting arrived and the neighborhood of the statue was packed with a dense concourse of excited persons. The meeting was called to order by the speaker. Just at the stroke of 10 a shout went up from the people and the crowd, led by a number of gentlemen, among whom was W. S. Parkerson, John O. Brennan, and others, began to walk down the street and round the railing of the statue.

"Fall in!" "Fall in!" was the deafening cry, and amid deafening shouts several men were ordered to go to the front. The view from the altitude was impressive. The speaker escaped the lips of the gentlemen who were shouting the steps. They stood erect, motionless, and their faces, pallid, from some serious ailment or determination. There were no persons visible in the crowd and more could be seen from the balcony and ranging here and there of the street. Street cars were unable to pass through the crowd, and the cars were crowded with all descriptions were halted. The people were not to exercise their right of free speech, and they were in no mood to get out of the way. This was a fixed purpose, to hear what the speaker had to say, and to place an outraged community felt should be done.

Parkerson spoke first. He said that once before he had appeared before the people in grand mass meetings and that he was now appearing in the interest of the community and again in the interest of the people. He said that in the murder trial yesterday and today he had seen a man who had been a good citizen in his life. He said that he was a man who had been a good citizen in his life. He said that he was a man who had been a good citizen in his life.

The speaker appointed Representatives Barkworth, Beckwell, Conner, Hall and Conner as the committee. The morning was spent in consideration of the bills and the committee members of the whole, Representative Barkworth in the chair.

"St. Patrick's day in the morning!" In every clime where the Irish are found—in what clime are they not found?—St. Patrick's day brings to them an intermingling of joy and sorrow. It brings back to them the cabin door, and the green hills and vales of Old Erin fit like a panorama before their eyes.

PUBLIC OPINION.

It is a long time since I had the pleasure of meeting an interesting fellow as C. E. Bolton, the lecturer. After his lecture at the Grand Rapids hall Friday evening I spent an hour with him at the club in company with some other friends, and we were splendidly entertained. Mr. Bolton is a bright and witty in private life as he is when speaking to the public, and he also has some excellent ideas on public questions. During our talk the race question was brought up and after considerable discussion, during which Bolton expressed his opinion on the south that were very interesting he said: "I think this is the most serious question now before the public, or if not now it will be in the near future, and it is going to be a most difficult one to settle. The colored people are multiplying rapidly and they are gaining more prominence in public life every year. In a short time they will be important figures in the state legislatures, in congress and the senate, and many of them will be professors in our colleges. I have a great prominent man in the south if they could solve the problem, and they shake their heads and say it will probably not come in their lifetime, but they pity their children, who will have the great question to deal with in all its intricate phases. For my part, I don't believe the nation will ever settle the question, but it will be disposed of in different localities in different ways. Some will be put together and the blacks will form little colonies by themselves and rule supreme in the public eye. The national question will still be a live issue."

One of the disagreeable results of the consolidation of the street railway system was witnessed a few days ago. I was riding on the street car carrying south when a lady, accompanied by a couple of little girls boarded the car at corner of Monroe and Ottawa streets. The lady had transferred from a street car to the one I was riding on and seated them as far away from me as possible, and she said she had been ordered not to take any transfers. I was riding on the street car from Monroe street. The lady explained that she had alighted from a bridge street car at the corner of Ottawa and Second streets and had walked over to Monroe to take the street car to Ottawa street. ASTHMA 35 YEARS

Rapidly Recovering.

I had asthma 35 years very bad, sometimes had to go to bed, and the treatment I took from physicians were of no use until I employed Dr. S. Clay Todd, 10 N. Division street, room 4, Grand Rapids, Mich. I have been taking his medicines one month, and notwithstanding my recent trip of two weeks to Canada I have continued to improve steadily, and have only had one bad attack since I began my treatment, and that was while I was in Canada, and I breathe freer, especially in the last week or ten days, and the longer I walk without experiencing difficulty; in fact, I feel that my dreadful complaint is leaving me. I am 60 years of age.

I had a cough since I had a severe attack of Diphtheria 9 years ago. My physicians said I had consumption and there was no help for me. Tuberculosis would form in my lungs and I would lose my voice, sometimes accompanied by blood; also had fever and sweating periods and became very weak; could hardly raise my chair. At this time, seeing the advertisement of Dr. S. Clay Todd, the famous specialist of Grand Rapids, in the Detroit Evening News, I employed him, and after taking one treatment I feel that I am a new man. I would like to see you. I am recommended Dr. S. Clay Todd, 10 North Division street, Grand Rapids, Mich., to all similarly afflicted.
