

INDIGNITY WAS PROMISED.

Several days ago the Morning Press made the point that Mr. Blaine had fallen into a gross error in promising an indemnity to the relatives of the Italian killed in New Orleans. It appears that Mr. Blaine realizes that fact himself and it is glad to get out from under the burden. Mr. Blaine has done nothing of the kind, for he has no power to do so, that being a matter ultra vires for congress.

Baron Favas' second point demands the recognition, in principle, that an indemnity is due to the relatives of the Italian killed in New Orleans.

Baron Favas' second point demands the recognition, in principle, that an indemnity is due to the relatives of the Italian killed in New Orleans. It is not to be understood that the United States government declines to take this matter into consideration, and that it regrets if he has communicated such a message to the United States government, so far from refusing, has distinctly recognized the principle of indemnity to the relatives of the Italian killed in New Orleans.

INCREASED TAXATION.

One of the points made by Mr. Stuart in his acceptance speech was that under the rule of the fiscalists, extending over nine years, the taxation of the city had increased from 3 per cent to 10 per cent, and that it was now proposed to increase it to 15 per cent.

CELEBRATING ALLIANCE.

The Alliance Alliance of the state will commence this week to organize a subordinate lodge. The work has been deferred until this election was past. In the mean time the necessary preparation for the work has been done.

MADE A GOOD OFFICER.

The third ward has had a good representative in the council, Fred A. Alderman Doren, and now that he has been re-nominated he will undoubtedly be elected by a handsome majority.

THE CIRCULATION RECORD.

The circulation of the circulation statements of the Morning Press published during the past week give the following results: Monday, 5,184; Tuesday, 5,184; Wednesday, 5,184; Thursday, 5,184; Friday, 5,184; Saturday, 5,184; Sunday, 5,190.

THE WAR VESSELS CHARGE.

The war vessels Chicago, Boston and Atlanta actually escaped the danger of the harbor of Pensacola and did not sink. This is a great relief to the American navy.

SOLID ENOUGH.

The American Motor Company Incorporated Saturday. Articles of association were filed Saturday at the county clerk's office.

AN ACCEPTABLE CANDIDATE.

Lawrence Crowley is a candidate for the office of auditor from the First ward, and if elected he will undoubtedly prove himself a satisfactory representative of the people in the city legislature.

AN OLD RESIDENT.

William McKeown is the Republican nominee for the office of comptroller, an old resident, and a reliable, respected citizen.

RE-ELECTRIC NETWORK.

This remedy is becoming so well known and so popular as to need no special mention. All who have used Electric Bitters will be glad to testify.

A MISTAKE CORRECTED.

A mistake was made yesterday in referring to the candidacy of Walter Orr for the office of auditor of the Second ward. He was nominated by the Democrats, not by the Republicans.

A GOOD ADMIRER.

There are few members of the common council who have been more faithful in their work than Alderman Anderson of the Second ward, and he certainly deserves a return of the office.

TO REPRESENT THE THIRD.

Charles A. Doren is a thoroughly acquainted with the affairs of the city and the interests of the people and having been familiar with public affairs for many years, he is deserving of a liberal award by all fair minded citizens.

FIRE THIS MORNING

Four Stores and Contents Burned on South Division Street - Several Families Hurled Out.

An alarm at 9:25 this morning called the flames to the corner of South Division street and Eleventh avenue. It was a long run and they were too late to do more than confine the flames to the building in which it started, and the entire frame block, owned by Henry Van Vorhes, containing four stores with living rooms overhead, was burned to the ground. Loss, $8,000; partially insured.

The occupants of the stores were Doyle & Son, grocers, who lose $1,000, with $1,000 insurance; Jacob Belloni, meat market, loss $500; John Van Kuren, dry goods, loss $1,400, insured for $800; Miller's hardware store, loss $1,500, insurance unknown.

The families who lived over the stores lost all their household effects and were lucky to escape without loss of life. They are C. C. Cook, who loses $500; John McKenzie, $400; A. D. Clark, $300, and Mrs. Etta Bailey and son, who lose $1,500. Their insurance could not be learned this morning.

A two-story frame dwelling adjoining the block on the south, owned by Mr. Maynes of Pennsylvania, was partially destroyed.

The fire had a good start before the firemen reached it and it burned rapidly, lighting up the southern part of the city to such an extent as to lead people down town to think the car shops were being destroyed.

CITY AND SUBURBS.

Let everybody hustle. Get out at full volume, and may the best men win.

Beautiful spring weather has come at last.

A child belonging to S. Richards, 527 Burdett street, was picked up yesterday on West Bridge street by the firemen and returned to his parents.

Water, Thompson, W. Luff, Gust Nelson, Chauncy Payne and James Robertson are the drunks who will make their bow in Police court this morning.

Guardian Brener is indignant because a Telegram Herald reporter asked him why he didn't put on roller skates in the city hall.

The count will be slow, you won't know until the result in the city until Saturday morning. Mr. Stanton will be absent probably a week or ten days.

Patrolmen Price and Dunlap paid a visit to Elmhurst avenue yesterday morning to umpire a family matter which was in progress. No arrests were made, but the matter was favored with a lively entertainment.

Miss Jennie De Boer, of 164 James street, was entertained last evening by her friends at Pedro Friday evening.

Nettie Gofford was the "lady" principal in the play "The Girl in the Red Velvet" given at the city hall last evening.

THE LAW IS MARKING.

To Violate a Treaty is Not a Crime. WASHINGTON, April 5.—The Post says: "It is a curious fact that congress has never in all its history passed a law which defines the violation of a treaty as a punishable offense. Year after year treaties guaranteeing protection to foreigners in the United States have been ratified, and yet the general government was left without the authority to enforce their provisions and prosecute their infraction. The necessity of such a law was pointed out by the present difficulty in now placing a law on the statute books which would make it a crime to violate any provision of the treaties of the United States to prosecute the signatories in New York. But no such law ever has been passed, and the necessity for its enactment will be urged in the message of the president to congress."

Wind and Weather. WASHINGTON, April 6.—For Lower Michigan: Light rain; southerly winds; warmer Tuesday.

The Inn in Literature. The social importance of the inn in the days of old is proved by the conspicuous position it holds in our fiction and poetry. The "Catherine Tales" of Chaucer start from an inn, along with the company of pilgrims bound for St. Thomas's shrine, to whom the genesis of the post has given an immortal life. Its name and the "Tavern" of the bard, still preserve the memory of the famous inn thus associated with our first great English poet. It was not, however, until the reign of Elizabeth that the tavern attained to a permanent place in literature, reflecting the important place it held in the daily life of the people.—All the Year Round.

A Very Old Hat. Mr. George Allen, the Auburn second hand dealer, has a hat in his possession which he estimates may be over one hundred and fifty years old. "The hat of my father wore," "grandfather's hat" and "where did you get that hat?" aren't a circumstance compared with the fact that it is a beaver with a genuine bell top, and was made in New York city. A bit of silk facing on the top part of the rim. This was to keep the raising of the hat without ruffling the hair.—Auburn (Maine) Gazette.

One American manufacturer ships 1,000 lumber wagons to the States every year, and yet the natives continue to cite the Deuce Aves with carts of the same size and make a war worn 1,000 years ago. It takes one year to draw even an empty cart, but the people don't care to experiment.—Detroit Free Press.
