OBITUARY.

D. H. Hamilton—Photographer.

DAVID H. HAMILTON, who has for the past six years conducted a successful photographer's business in this city, died at his residence, 157 Ransom street, Friday about noon. Mr. Hamilton's physician pronounced the cause of his disease a heart failure.

Mr. Hamilton was born in New York state March 12, 1838. He has been in the photographing business for thirty-five years, most of which time he has spent in Fort Wayne, Ind., and in this city. He came here from Detroit six years ago, and has conducted one of the most successful galleries in the city. He also has a branch in Muskegon. In business matters Mr. Hamilton was upright and capable, and had the confidence of the community. He was a good husband and father and citizen.

The time and place of the funeral will be announced later.

Mrs. W. G. Beckwith.

Mrs. W. G. Beckwith died at the family home Friday afternoon after a long illness, aged nearly 50 years. She was a daughter of Amos Jilison, one of the earliest pioneers in what is named "Egypt" in Ada territory. She was born in 1837, and Mrs. Beckwith was born Feb. 14, 1843. She taught school in her early life in the Rapids, and was a ship, and in January, 1871, married Mr. Beckwith.

The bereaved husband will have the sincere sympathy of all who knew Mrs. Beckwith, for her many acts of kindness and regard for every one to whom she met.
