

THE PRESS REVIEW

AMERICAN SAILORS CERTAINLY GOT THE WORST OF IT.
Capt. Selby's report of the investigation as set out by Secretary Tracy—
Americans did not provoke the riot.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Secretary Tracy and John W. Foster had conferred this morning on the results of this afternoon's investigation in regard to the Chilian incident, and at its close Secretary Tracy disclosed the following as the latest official information on the subject: "From a dispatch received from Captain Selby this evening it appears that he has made a careful investigation of the origin of the assault on our sailors attached to the Baltimore at Valparaiso. The investigation shows that a petty officer, Charles Higgins, while riding in a street car and shot; that he was murdered in the arms of his companions by about 100 men, who were armed; that Appreice F. Tabot was assaulted and carried to the rear of the ship in the back, two of the wounds penetrating his lung; that Coal Heaver Iterson was robbed and dangerously injured several times in the back, this assault being made by about 200 men; that Coal Heaver Turnbull received injuries in the back, and that he is in a critical state; that Petty Officer Hamilton was severely wounded in the back and other parts of the body; that a coal heaver, painter and landsman were severely wounded; that two of the seriously wounded are still in the hospital, that in several other cases the sailors were rendered assistance to our sailors, and in some instances police officers protected the sailors."

Good Ladies in New York.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—The Washington Post remarks today editorially that the New York ought to stop whining about the loss of the World's fair, which she lost because Chicago outworked her. The Post says that the World's fair in the states before congress met and here, and said: "It was a clear contest on one side, and a clear victory on the other. It was a contest with mournful dignity on one side, and wide awake Western energy and self-reliance on the other. The result was won. That is the whole situation in regard to the location of the fair."

Blow to Fragments.
MAYFIELD, N. D., Oct. 23.—A terrific explosion here yesterday destroyed the Mayfield Bonanza farm. A large steam threshing machine was allowed to run short of water, and the boiler exploded, blowing the boiler to pieces. The explosion followed. The list of killed is as follows: James H. Hines, Bonanza farm; John B. Bowers, Wm. Clark, D. Smith and one unnamed man. The explosion was caused by a fragment of the boiler striking the boiler. Wm. Deady and Larry May were killed.

Murdered by Bandits.
WASHNET, Oct. 23.—A German named Werner, naturalized as a citizen of Russia, while on his way to Germany, was murdered by two men in London. The men were arrested for the murder. The ransom money was $10,000.

An Open House Burned.
LANSING, Mich., Oct. 23.—The open house at the Hotel de la Ville in this place was burned this morning. Loss $60,000.

A Distasteful Scientist Dead.
LONDON, Oct. 23.—Philip Herbert Carpenter, M. A., F. R. S., a distinguished scientist, died this morning.

Current News Condensed.
John Shortell, aged 102, died at Little Rock, Ark., Thursday night.

THE BELMONT PATRON FILES AGAINMENT AND WARNING.

He Thinks the People's Party Made a Grave Mistake in Placing Mr. Hutchins in Nomination, and Seems to Fear the Result.
THE MONTROE PRESS is absolutely the only exponent in the journalism of the state, and now I put to the test even the independence of your columns. Let us cross swords in true knightly fashion, and in this campaign bear constant on either apoplexy or amputation—for the most important question in Michigan today is the election of the ablest and best congressman for the Fifth district.

CURRENT STATE NEWS.

The salt production at the blocks of one company in Ludington this season will amount to 100,000 barrels.

The wheat crop of Kalamazoo county for this year is at 1,233,053 bushels, the largest in the state except Calhoun.

The state board of agriculture will give twenty-two farmers' institutes throughout the state...

Gold has been found in small quantities on a farm near Inlay City, and a strange feature is it was found by a man who didn't care to sell his place.

Twelve potatoes filling a half bushel basket were weighing thirty-three pounds, were brought to Noway last week by Jonathan Haviland, of Garfield.

Three farm women had hunting birds, a man, and the rural Nimrod school in the tree, where he hoisted himself up to see.

The steamboat Oscar Townsend, owned by R. T. Townsend, valued at $10,000, was entirely destroyed by fire Thursday afternoon off Fort Sanilac.

Attorney General Ellis has brought suit against Kidney, Core, Warner to select him from the marshes of Wolf Bay, where he attempted to hold undisturbed possession for several years past.

Detroit Times: "Grover Cleveland has written a letter deprecating the Independent movement in the Fifth district." Doubtless the independent voters who are voting for him understand that his excellency has spoken.

A tramp who refused to give his name was arrested at Kalamazoo for criminal mischief in the case of the great-oldest child of C. Vanbait. The child was a boy who the tramp took for a girl, but he will be prosecuted at once.

Hastings Journal: "An exchange, alluding to their scarcity, wants to know who has a corner on school marks, well we do not know who is controlling the market, but there has been several in this vicinity taken for honest money."

Farwell city fathers have imposed a tax of six per year on each table in operation in the place, and declare the tax will be paid or the tables will be overturned as they were in the history of Palestine.

The annual convention of the Michigan Baptists will be held at Saginaw Thursday with an attendance of about 400. At the conference preliminary prayer convention strong ground was taken against dancing, theaters, cards and race.

In various parts of the state applications are being sent to the state fish commission for a supply of black bass with which to stock the inland lakes. We would suggest that a few nice black bass with which to stock our tables would be quite acceptable just now.

Toronto made $11,451 clear profits out of her street railways last month, and that with the fares at 3 cents for four hours during the day. If Toronto, a Canadian town, can clear over $11,000 out of her street railways in one month, it would seem well for Grand Rapids to wake up.

It does not take much to make Grand Haven groan, as the following from the "Michigan States": "Our city for two or three days has been wrestling with a tortuous gas famine, and custard pies, pudding, egg-nog and hot fruit delicacies are getting to be unknown commodities. Relief is promised soon."

The federal authorities are looking for one J. T. Wright, who tramped through the country swindling soldiers by representing himself to be an ex-minister of pensions. He charges them to $2 to $10. He is a first-class fraud. His career is short after "The Morning Press" reports has been scolded.

Sparta Sentinel: "The best example of faith we have heard of comes from a Methodist minister just returned from White Cloud to Milbrook. He writes back to the business that the Lord has given him a place big enough to set his left foot upon, and he's trusting to get his right foot down soon."

Ben I. Williams, who died at Lansing this week at the age of 77, had a face as smooth as an iron disk, in the absence of shaving twenty years ago and plucked his whiskers with a pin and tweezers. Mr. Williams had plenty of grit even if he did lack a little in sense. He might easily have avoided shaving by letting his whiskers grow.

Scientific men of note have declared that dancing is the most healthful exercise known. It brings into play the muscles of the body and results in rejuvenation to both young and old. We hesitated some before publishing this for fear some giddy young folks should be led astray by the one thing useful notion. No doubt dancing will boom after this.

Walter White, the Stockbridge school teacher who has been in a lame-leave state for 125 days, grows steadily weaker. Her condition is a problem the physicians cannot understand, and as she can take only liquid nourishment, she daily grows more emaciated. The poor woman was probably nearly tired to death by the unruly "kids" of her district and has not yet been cured.

Our fear concerning the verdict of science as to dancing was founded as the following from the Detroit Times shows: "Rev. Dr. Haskell of Kalamazoo college believes the race for dancing which will be held at the Grand Rapids Auditorium, and which has a bad effect upon the students. We are sorry, doctor, but it can be helped. Science has the field in these days. The church must take a back seat."

Benjamin News: "This is the proper time to begin preparations for first class during the winter. See to it that the room fires are found and unsafe, put the pipes through upper story floors without disarranging the gas pipes, and the boiler attached to the side of the house and stable and be careful to put red hot nails into it, and if you neglect of yours."

Detroit Times: "Grand Rapids street car officials say the ladies of that city manage two rides for one fare through an abuse of the transfer system, and they will adopt a new device to prevent the fraud. We do not believe the street car officials have said anything of the kind, but if they have done so and do not promptly apologize they will have trouble which will make the street car strike seem light in comparison. We pause for a reply."

Our journal of Police court: "And now your hunter threatens his shot gun after a heavy breakfast before daylight hours. He says he will shoot you if you bring home at least twenty squirrels and twelve ducks. About 11 o'clock he says he will make the street car look respectable. At 1 o'clock he isn't very sure, but he'd just as soon shoot you as he would a duck. At 3 in the afternoon he staggers weakly home, panting heavily under the load of one squirrel and a mud hen. Such is life."

THE THEATERS.

A large audience greeted "The Charity Ball" at the Grand Rapids theatre, which were friends of Boyd Putnam, the star. The play has not undergone any material changes since its presentation here last season.

With one or two minor exceptions, the same Theatre is evidently agreed to be a success. It has well-tooled to aldermanic proportions.

The Crede Burelique company will close a successful engagement at Smith's opera house tonight. The company is deserving of good patronage, as it gives magnificent variety in its performance from the rise to the final fall of the curtain.

The Fair Theatre company will be the attraction next week.

"The Burglar" who has been on trial all the week at Redmond's will be discharged tonight and will continue against the citizens. He will go East and burgle some more. Next week Souly & Glimy's "Lipsy Fads" company will present a new play.

The young and rising tragedienne, Minna K. Gale, will open at Powers' Monday night as Rosalind in "As You Like It" and Tuesday night in the play "The Homecoming".

Emma Duch and a company of songsters will delight the patrons of Powers' next Wednesday night.

The Wonderland theater and music still pampers to the tastes of large and delighted audiences.

Some Familiar Quotations.

Walden, the prince of the poets, of the Georgians, is misquoted in the expression, "All men have their price." He never said so, and he never said such a thing as that.

the vision that Along Without Man. "Shall man be in the next century?"

is the question which is asked by leaders of fashion tomorrow. Every year sees a new and novel of changing men. And each season it is harder and harder to find leaders for collars and gowns.

This year the fashion of the future is being developed at the functions which take place at hotels, and it is not considered a breach of etiquette or a lapse of manners to call into the unconventionalities for women to do so.

Whenever these smart ladies have been seen they have invariably asserted in their hotels they were utterly unlike in appearance and style. A very tall, dark woman with long hair, and a tall, dark woman with long hair, and a tall, dark woman with long hair.

For her partner, while in turn a tall, stately blonde will bear upon her arm a delicate little brunette who looked as if she could not stand up for herself to save her life and would not by any means venture to take a step alone.

Thus it is with women. They take things as they go with remarkable equanimity, and have a little kind of a "give and take" in their own minds to make up the breach in such a way that no one ever suspects that they have lost anything.—Chicago News.

An Original Design.

A Brooklyn woman, in designing a window for her stair hall, has been inspired to make it a family window. It represents three nationalities.

The window consists of three panes. On one side there is the English rose, beautifully wrought in stained glass.

On the other side there is the Scotch thistle, because the woman herself is a Scotchwoman and wishes to see her national flag represented in the center is our own American goldenrod, and just above it is a monogram of the initials of the woman.

With rare good taste the woman has so placed the window that all who pass by it will see the three nationalities and a brand staircase hall, shining directly upon a fireplace, with an inviting carved wood mantel, and a picture of a typical of that clever American handling of ideas and harmony of taste which is all our own.—New York Commercial Advertiser.

A Memorial Tablet.

A memorial tablet is one of the latest fancies. The top is covered with gold, finely beveled, heavy and substantial.

Bevelled in this way, the inscription or regrets or other written communications accompanied by a photograph of the deceased, is placed in the center of the tablet, and is finished in different ways, and is the most delicate style of the widow, whose friends put in writing how much they love her.

A Venetian glass manufacturer is said to be making and selling bonnets by the thousand. The glass class of which they are made is the same shape and size as a fancy of color as silk, and is impervious to water.
