HARRISON AND ALDER ARE THE ONLY CANDIDATES LEFT.

A Conference of Republicans at Chicago before the Presidential Contest to the President and General Alger-Allison and Cullum are Bought Off.

CHICAGO, April 11.—A conference of Republican leaders was held at the Grand Pacific hotel yesterday.

Senator Allison represented his own group. Senator Sawyer of Wisconsin, the president and Judge Boggs and Jesse Spaulding represented Senator Cullum.

It is said that in consideration of a cabinet position Senator Allison agreed to give a Iowa delegation to Harrison.

It is further stated that Senator Cullum's recent letter of withdrawal was given under a similar agreement.

It is also stated that the western man disputing the nomination with Harrison.

DEENING'S DEFENSE

It is More Fully Outlined—A Great Excuse.

MELROUSE, April 11.—The defense of Deening, the murderer, is to be of an extraordinary character.

It will be that, owing to a prenatal impression on his mother, who happened to be frightened by the butchery of an animal, he was born with an irresistible mania for homicides, which he gratified every opportunity and with un-natural cunning.

No attempt will be made to deny that he has been guilty of any of the crimes attributed to him, the defense resting solely on insanity, and the greater the insanity the more the charge the better satisfied will the defense be.

There is no denial that he killed Ripper and that he committed several (if not all) of the crimes laid to his charge in the mysterious disappearance of the government.

The government will be asked to pay the expenses of Deening's witnesses from England. A witness who is very poor it is expected that any one will be willing to contribute money to aid in maintaining him.

It is stated that the Victoria authorities will be very great, and they are not pleased at the prospect. Deening appears to be losing mental and physical strength, and shows every sign of breaking down.

NO GREAT MOVING.

The Vessels at Detroit Have a Gloomy Outlook.

DETROIT, April 11.—Vessels here are very disappointed at the outlook for the grain movement from Detroit this spring.

In midwinter the indications were that by May 15, 2,000,000 bushels of wheat would be stored in Detroit elevators, and that permanent employment to the fleet of schooners which to a large extent are Detroit boats would be assured.

All these expectations have come to naught. The eastern and foreign demand for wheat is so small that it is very urgent that, excepting the few cargoes now afloat, all has gone forward to the coast for export.

Prospects for carriers at this point are quite discouraging.

LETTERS WILL NEVER COME

The Blaine School Has Been Ripped in the End.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The Washington Herald, who has been so patiently for the publication of the letters of young James G. Blaine, written to his wife during the early months of their married life are probably doomed to disappointment.

The statement is made on what appears to be good authority that these letters will never see the light.

The story goes that a friend of Secretary Blaine, presumably Secretary Blaine's friend, Mrs. Blaine, Jr. in New York, has arranged to receive the letters and to secure a promise that they shall not be published.

BEHIND THE SCENES

A Terrible Accident Sunday Morning on the Island.

Boston, April 11.—Last evening the instructor and ten boys connected with the Boston Farm school at Thompson's Island, captured in a sailboat, and sailed to the island, where it was wrecked.

The victims are A. E. Nordberg, instructor; Frank Hiebeck, Homer F. Thatcher, George P. Ellis, Thomas Phillips, William W. Carran, Charles H. Graver, Harry E. Lord and Adelbert H. Packard.

The instructor had been to the city during the day to attend church, and the ten boys, constituting the regular crew of the school, left the island at 7:30 to sail in City Point, to convey the instructor to the island. The trip was considered perfectly safe under ordinary circumstances, having been made for years, even during the winter months, without accident.

A precaution, however, in view of a breeze, the crew took a single sailboat instead of a double sail craft, in which the trip had often been made. The trip to the point had been made from the island, and the boat started on the return trip.

Between Scituate Island and Thompson's Island, the boat was struck by a squall and immediately capsized. The eleven occupants were thrown into the water, and the boat was overturned, and then began the long wait for rescue which some of them thought would never come.

When the boat returned to the island passed the superintendent of the school, Chas. A. Bradley, who saw the water toward City Point to see if the boys were approaching.

He saw the boat, but they could see him. Finally the chill of the water and the exertion necessary to keep their heads above the surface overcame the unfortunate, and one by one they were carried to the bottom.

The instructor was the first to go. Each offered a prayer or a word of farewell to the others, and they were all on life. Some of them endured the unequal contest for nearly four hours, and three of them were rescued at 11 o'clock, when the boat with two survivors still clinging to it, but exhausted, was towed to the shore.

The government will be asked to pay the expenses of Deening's witnesses from England. A witness who is very poor it is expected that any one will be willing to contribute money to aid in maintaining him.

It is stated that the Victoria authorities will be very great, and they are not pleased at the prospect. Deening appears to be losing mental and physical strength, and shows every sign of breaking down.

THE WASHINGTON PAPERS ARE STILL HARPING ON IT.

It is Alleged That His Nomination Is a Necessary and That He Will Not Be Nominated.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—An evening paper says: "A devoted friend of Blaine said today that he would not support Blaine for the presidency should he be offered him by the convention, and that he did not desire and would not seek it."

"The new impetus being given to the Blaine talk is a matter of great interest to the politicians of both parties. Probably none doubt that Blaine is sincere in his desire to be nominated, and that his nomination would come upon him as a candidate of his party, but there is a large element of opinion who cannot reconcile themselves to the thought of his retirement from public life without a general election of free choice."

"The success of the party depends upon his acceptance of the nomination. These things will not give up the name of Blaine's nomination."

BLAINE AND MILDON.

Curious Contrast Existed Between the Secretary and the Great Trainer.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The kaleidoscope of American politics is said to present an unusual spectacle of a great trainer and a professional wrestler.

The two men who are now occupying the presidency under training in the hands of a professional wrestler. Both men occupy the very highest positions in their respective fields of activity, for one is the secretary of state, James G. Blaine, and the other the scarcely less distinguished William Maldon.

Although, naturally enough, the secretary had strong objections to having the arrangement made public, the facts are so well known that it is not necessary to say that Mr. Blaine, who was in the city for several days last week, suggested to him that he should make a strict obedience to the laws of nature under proper direction would make a sound man of him.

Mr. Blaine readily assented to this proposition, but when the friend suggested that Mr. Maldon as a proper man and a man of letters should be invited to the secretary's study. Under much persuasion, however, he consented to an interview with the trainer.

Maldon was in Washington with a theatrical company, and after the manner of his occupation, he is a man of letters and with considerable embarrassment during the secretary's presence.

It is said that Mr. Blaine was subjected to a long and a hard struggle, and that he was in a state of great nervousness and that he was in a state of great nervousness and that he was in a state of great nervousness.

A TREASURY TRICK

The Department Is Trying to Depreciate Silver.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Senator Stewart gave notice today that tomorrow he would briefly explain his resolution for the purpose of securing information from the treasury department.

He will show that the present method of purchasing silver bullion is not intended to maintain a parity between gold and silver, but for the purpose of depressing the price of bullion. It is not believed that Stewart's remarks will lead to a general election of free choice as Blaine has already given notice that he shall insist upon the agreement made last two days should devolved to the treasury and will only yield for the purpose indicated by Stewart.

THE NEXT CONGRESS

BURROWS SAYS IT WILL BE CERTAINLY REPUBLICAN.

PROFESSOR FOREMAN OF THE NEXT CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Julius Caesar Burrows made an oral statement today that the next house of representatives will be Republican.

His prophecy is not accompanied by exact data. It is based mainly, in fact, upon Mr. Burrows' hope to be speaker of the next congress.

The congressional campaign committee have figured out that there are 57 districts which are in doubt, the others being Southern or Northern or where the majority is so large that the outcome is certain. Of these doubtful 57 are now represented by Democrats and 15 by Republicans.

Burrows makes a modest claim that every one of the forty-two Democratic districts will be carried by the Republicans, and that the list of those who will be retired, Stout, Touman and Wheeler of Michigan.

THE THEATERS.

Charles A. Gardner, the popular German comedian, will appear at Powers' Saturday night as "Captain Kart."

He is surrounded by a number of clever people, whose singing, dancing and mimicking naturally add to the attraction of the play.

act two there is a spirited scene, "The promise of Infant Eileen," a diverting and novel feature both pleasing and amusing, and in the third act the famous "The case of the cat" is not to be forgotten. The play is a number of fine selections.

Hamilton & Herndon's Dramatic and Specialty company began a week's engagement in the four act sensational comedy drama "The Six Birds."

Smith's last night. The play is of the wild West order, has an interesting plot well presented, though some of the actors need help in their parts.

It is not doubtless become more familiar with their parts and appear to better advantage than ever. He gives a wonderful performance with several features never before presented here.

The "Pirates of Penzance," to be given by the Grand Rapids Guards, assisted by the local talent at the Grand Rapids theatre, will be the first of the season, both from a musical and a social standpoint. The dates selected are the 15th and 16th.

"The World Against Her" at Redmond's all week, with the usual matinee, will delight those who are not habitual theatergoers.

Lillian Kennedy and her company occupied boxes at Redmond's Sunday evening concert.

How Henry He Met Overreached Himself by Preparing a Snook.

Roger Krog was arrested last week and fined $50 for obstructing a window light in a shop at 41 Plainfield avenue.

The process was a criminal one of the kind imposed was $1 and costs.

Yesterday the complainant, Henry De Mott, called at the police station, the police clerk and demanded the fine imposed by the court. The clerk could not comply until he had been furnished with a check from the prosecuting attorney.

He said: "I had known the fine would not be paid, but I had to go to the court to have the warrant. He offered to pay the fine in advance, but I refused to have the warrant in my hands."

Prostrated by Paralysis.

Albert Marsh Overdrew and Is Stricken Down.

Albert Marsh, living at 100 North avenue, was prostrated last night on East Avenue street, with what a physician has diagnosed as a serious case of paralysis of the limbs.

Yesterday he helped to move, lifting beyond his strength, and the next day he was unable to get up. He was taken to the hospital, where he died last night. It was thought was the result of overwork.

An ambulance was called and removed the sufferer to his home.

BOLT TRAIN ROBBERS

A GANG ATTACKS A FREIGHT TRAIN IN NEW YORK.

The Thief Drive the Train to the Men-At-Arms.

CONVICTS, N. Y., April 11.—Bolt burglars broke into Erie freight cars last night and drove the train to the men-at-arms.

An officer captured one of the burglars last night. The man was found on the ground near the train and broke into cars, stealing a quantity of women's shoes. The police then captured three more of the gang, but only after some shooting in which one of the robbers was wounded.

The others were chased a distance by officers on a locomotive, but they took to the woods and escaped. They were equipped with burglars' tools, and were found with their tools and their work and kept open car when they knew that officers were in pursuit.

There was a quantity of fuse and powder blown found upon those captured and they are undoubtedly professional burglars.

MANY LOGS BANKED.

Lively Times Promised for the Cheboygan Mills.

CHEBOYGAN, Mich., April 11.—The outlook here in lumber is essentially that at most Michigan lumber points. The lumber crop of the county is estimated at 22,000,000 feet, which is 3,000,000 more than in 1901.

But there is a boom here about 12,000,000 feet of logs, as against half that amount last year. This is a great advantage at the start of the close of the season.

Last year's lumber cut was 104,000,000 feet, but this year's is expected to reach 150,000,000 feet. The shipping of this year's cut will be about 500,000 per day. The major part of this season's cut will be shipped to Toronto and the West Coast.

STOLE HIS UNCLE'S WIFE.

A Minkem Fire Laddie Creates a Sensation.

MINKEM, Mich., April 11.—Albert Stamp, a policeman in the fire department here, has eloped with the wife of Dr. P. P. Stamp.

The doctor followed them to Chicago and caused their arrest at Michigan City, but ordered them to be released as he said that all he wanted was to get away from the doctor.

The young man is a nephew of the doctor, and has many friends and relatives here who are not to be blamed as the woman caused him to do it.

MILLAN'S RESOLUTIONS.

Taken Up and Agreed to by the Senate Today.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The two resolutions offered by Mr. McMillan last evening in regard to the construction of warships at lake ports, and in regard to the agreement between the United States and Great Britain in regard to the maintenance of the naval force to be maintained in the great lakes, were taken up and agreed to by the senate today.

One Hundred Emper.

CITY OF GRAND RAPIDS, April 11.—It is learned that over one hundred prisoners sentenced to death have from time to time escaped from the Leelanau penitentiary.

It is reported that a number of these prisoners have been seen in the neighborhood of an underground passage which has just been discovered.

General Alger's Minors Discharged.

NAGANUE, Mich., April 11.—The United States marshal, owned by E. A. Alger, has discharged his two minors, retaining only 100. It has 125,000 tons of ore in stock and used.

Small-Foot in New York.

NEW YORK, April 11.—A case of small-foot was reported at the bureau of vital statistics last Saturday.

THIS LOOKS LIKE A JOB

AN UNNECESSARY OFFICE FOR A "CIBOLA BOULEVARD SECOND FIDDLE."

The committee on Lamps sees the Passage of a Resolution Hiring E. A. Connelly to Gaze at the Tall Towers and Pocket $75 a Month for Doing It.

Mayor Hull called the council to order last night and the roll call was answered by nineteen aldermen. Many of the aldermen-elect were present, getting wisdom from those who had been through the mill.

Alderman-elect Damsky sat alongside Alderman Emmer, but kept his head down and did not speak. Alderman Doyle, who he succeeds, Alderman Saunders was smiling and happy and appeared as if the goddess of peace had found a dwelling place in his heart.

Alderman-elect Connelly was not so forthcoming. He was a little sullen and rather jocular over the knowledge that he will soon have the city removed from his shoulders.

Alderman Mills was of course jolly and frequently pulled his eyes out of his sockets and made a little sullen manner. Alderman Sisk was on time and as is his custom, spoke on every subject that came up.

Alderman Sprout showed gum and wondered what the Hallwood Brick company would do when he stepped out. Alderman Sanders did not look well and evidently felt his defeat. Alderman Conner came in rather late and sported a new red necktie, which might account for his tardiness.

The Rhode Island Democrats found no significance when the returns showed the election of the Republican ticket.

It is natural enough. In the spring election of 1888, preceding a presidential election Rhode Island gave the Republicans a plurality of 3,173.

It is true and of no significance that election in that the Republicans can hold their own on the tariff issue in New England states.
