

UNSEASONABLE STORMS

A FIERCE BLIZZARD RAGING IN THE WESTERN STATES

Illinois and Wisconsin Suffer From Cold and Severe Storms—Advices From Further West Still More Discouraging—Snow and High Winds With Cold.

CHICAGO, April 14.—Advices from northern Illinois and southern Wisconsin indicate that a severe April blizzard is now raging. The rain of yesterday has given place to a heavy snow, the high wind being unabated. The weather is growing colder. Telegraph and telephone communication is greatly interfered with, and in many places the wires are prostrated.

WATERLOO, S. D., April 14.—The storm which set in Tuesday night still persists. The St. Louis bombers have lodged themselves in front of the city with dry goods boxes to protect them from the elements. The rush still continues, every train bringing in loads of would-be settlers. As yet there have been no instructions as to what the Indians over Commissioner Carter's order that no soldier can file more than one declaration, that lawyers have been retained, and a fight will be made for what they consider their rights.

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 14.—Dispersed this morning from twenty to thirty in Minnesota say a furious snow storm is raging and the weather is growing wild.

STUART, Ia., April 14.—A fierce blizzard is raging here, which will prove disastrous to crops. The snow has been falling twelve hours.

ROCKFELL, Ill., April 14.—A severe snowstorm and blizzard is raging here. Over two inches of snow has fallen.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., April 14.—A fierce blizzard is raging here. Telegraph communication is badly interrupted.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., April 14.—The storm which has been raging here for some time has increased in fury as the blizzard and blizzard.

WILLIAMS STREET VIADUCT. It Will Probably Be Allowed to Slumber for awhile.

The council chamber and committee room of the city hall will be used for a large number of aldermen last night, but no business of importance was transacted.

Mayor Uhl, together with the aldermen of the first ward, were in consultation with W. E. Sibley, city engineer, O'Brien of the G. R. & E. M. Briggs of the Michigan Central and J. J. McVean of the C. & W. M. in regard to the proposed viaduct over the railroad tracks at the corner of the city hall street to Ellsworth avenue through Williams street.

Some of the men did not think the scheme feasible and that the expense would be far greater than the aldermen have been led to believe. A vote will be taken in the council on the matter, at least not at present, and probably it will return for years in committee state. Alexander Kolenbrander appeared before the committee on claims and claims and returned to the city hall. He again asked that he be allowed damages for being injured at the intersection of Cass street and Williams street by a defective street. The committee reported adversely on the claim at a meeting held in the city hall yesterday. It is going to try his luck again. All he wants is $500.

A DIVORCE HOUSE.

Mrs. Greenwald Sues for a Divorce from Her Husband. Wilhelmina Greenwald has brought suit in the Circuit court for a divorce from Jacob Greenwald. They were married Dec. 21, 1888, and lived together until Feb. 25, 1892.

She alleges that she desired a half interest in the land in a house in Grand Rapids in which she had invested $800 upon his promise to support her and her children by a former marriage. He failed to keep his promise and she has been obliged to earn a living by taking in washing. Her husband spends all his earnings for gambling and she has been obliged to follow her about the city, and to her own home, threatening to do her own washing and to sweep away the dirt on the public highway.

On reading the bill the court issued an order restraining her from interfering with his wife or selling, conveying or in any way disposing of real estate, or in any way interfering with his property.

THE ART LOAN.

A worthy exhibition for an equally worthy cause. The loan exhibits for the benefit of the War's Home and a hospital now in progress at the vacant store corner of Pearl and Ottawa streets, is not the financial success the managers hoped. The collection on exhibition, however, is all that could be hoped for, and should be commended.

Among the collections are found excellent specimens of ancient armor, battle axes, bludgeons, swords, spears, and other weapons and ornaments in large numbers, also rare books, one of which bears date of 1290, and a translation with a pen, Martin Luther's translation and interesting relic.

The rooms will be open this afternoon and evening and should be visited to overflowing.

OFFICIAL FRESHNESS.

An Apparent Case of Gross Wrong to a Laboring Man.

An instance of how the innocent are often victimized by a cunning arrangement is allowed to go shot free seems to be afforded in the detention by the offices of one A. H. Plag upon a charge of criminal assault.

King J. A. German workman, 30 years old, with a wife and four children, has heretofore borne a good reputation and has never been in any trouble. He lives neighbor to Mrs. Bronheim, whose husband was killed a short time ago in an accident in each yard. The two families became involved in some misunderstanding, and Mrs. Bronheim told Mrs. Plag that the latter's husband had attempted to criminally assault her daughter 13 or 14 years ago.

This report reached the ears of eye and knee and seemed to sound the alarm, and Plag was forthwith taken into custody.

His wife and her daughter were taken to headquarters and their stories were duly taken down. The mother said she had been "infinitely" injured by her husband who she indignantly rejected. The girl said that Plag once visited her in her home, and she had a slip for a few minutes. If both stories are entirely true, there is no case against Plag, but as it is a long time ago, the papers have been filled by the officers with accusations, and an attempt is being made to bring down his reputation and standing in the community.

The truth seems to be that Plag while making a neighborly call coaxed the daughter for a sit on his lap, that afterwards the mother, Mrs. Bronheim, told Mrs. Plag that she had been "infinitely" injured by her husband who she indignantly rejected. The girl said that Plag once visited her in her home, and she had a slip for a few minutes. If both stories are entirely true, there is no case against Plag, but as it is a long time ago, the papers have been filled by the officers with accusations, and an attempt is being made to bring down his reputation and standing in the community.

Had reports come to the department about some of the gambling fraternity being in the city, the police would have been on the ground. Any information from the officers, if it is not "infinitely" a laborer and has no "infinitely."

OFFICIAL LAW BREAKERS.

A Justice and a Constable in Court for a Breach of the Peace.

John W. Cole and William Dives, Jr., are neighbors in Solon township, and have been so for many twenty years or more. They are pasted visited back and forth last Tuesday, but now there is a wide gulf between them. It is said that Cole is a man of the world, enjoys having his own way, and for a number of years has enjoyed the honor of being elected justice of the peace. He is reported among the neighbors that he is quite a handy man in a hand-to-hand encounter. Dives for a number of years has worn the honors of constable, is said to be a quiet, inoffensive church-going man.

Last Tuesday evening, as Cole tells the story, he was driving home, and was met in the road by Dives who picked up a club and struck him over the head. Dives, who is a constable, again asked that he be allowed damages for being injured at the intersection of Cass street and Williams street by a defective street. The committee reported adversely on the claim at a meeting held in the city hall yesterday. It is going to try his luck again. All he wants is $500.

A THOUSAND BRAVES.

The Delegation Tomorrow Will Send to Chicago.

New York, April 14.—The Tammany executive committee has arranged today for the trip to the Democratic convention in Chicago on June 23. One thousand men have been provided for, 500 to go by the New York Central and 500 by the Pennsylvania. In Chicago 300 men will be housed at the Hotel McLeod and 700 at the Auditorium and 600 at McLeod's. A band of music will accompany the delegation.

THREW AWAY $15,000.

An Expensive Experiment to Alleviate Stagnation or Jobbery—Discarded Street Lamps and Useless Street Signs.

Nearly all the gas and naphtha poles have been removed from the streets of the city and stored in the garret of the city hall, where they will remain and rot, and in that condition be an appropriate reminder of the council that has been in session.

The poles cost in the aggregate $14,000, but that does by no means represent the losses sustained by the taxpayers. An item of no small consequence of the city is the street signs that are all discarded. These signs are now useless for all purposes, as they are too small to place at the intersection of streets and were being thrown away. The signs cost nearly $700, which brings the total when added to the cost of the poles, when it is taken into consideration that the taxpayers have been robbed of the money that they have spent with light for inferior to that which they had before the robbery, or jobbery, of the council. The city engineer, who was the sponsor for the removal of the finished part of the committee on the street signs, the aldermen who voted to adopt their report.

The daily papers, with the exception of the "Free Press," were silent as to the matter, as both Democrats and Republicans voted for the measure. It is a long time necessary to go away from home to find the news, the following but should be noted: "The Free Press will not come as 'Mayor Uhl of Grand Rapids, promptly vetoed the proposed bill, and the appointment of a lamp inspector, for whom the city has paid as much as a road has for a half."

THE GOSPEL IN CREED.

Enterprising Clergymen Preaching in the Camp.

We have already had religious services in camp. A Catholic priest came there two weeks ago and said mass. He had an interesting message to deliver, and to open a mission here. Over $350 was subscribed for this purpose in one day. Following him came Rev. Joseph G. Gorman, pastor of the Methodist church, who preached in the rear room of Watson's gambling house. Mr. Gaston is an interesting preacher, and has a rough element to him by many qualities. There is no hint about his discourses. He does not talk about the things that are going on in the world, but individuals concerning particular acts of wickedness. He goes at his work in a charitable, broad minded way, and is not afraid to touch upon rough element to him by many qualities. There is no hint about his discourses. MOORE HARMONY REDEEMED.

There will be no more reconciling in the Republican camp. There is Dan McCoy who wants to be state treasurer and there is Fred Maynard who wants to be attorney general.

It is not likely that this congressional district will be able to get more than one piece on the Republican state ticket and harmony will have to evolve the man. First McCoy will have to slip coppers with Maynard and the winner will then notify the other aspirants to get out of the way for the Kent county man.

The white Republicans of Texas have made a remarkable move in separating themselves from the negroes. This move is a strong and practical endorsement of the conduct of the southern Democrats towards the negro and shows the Republicans of the north how hopeless would be a force bill in aiding them to erect Negro governments in the south.

A county convention of the People's party will be held at Allegan, April 26, at 10 a. m. to elect delegates to the state convention. Each township is entitled to five delegates.

Where Spools Are Made. "Crafted country, Mich. turned out nearly all of the spools on which the thread of this country is wound," said a wholesale notion dealer.

The strips are sent to the spool factories, where they are quickly worked into spools by ingenious labor saving machinery. The strips of white birch, which are not touched, in fact are hardly seen, again until the spools are finished for market.

In the backwoods villages of Oxford county one sees scarcely any other industry but spoolmaking, and every one is in some way interested in the business. The factories have been coming in the Maine birch forests for years, but there seems to be enough left yet to feed them well for years to come.

This city is the second in size in the state. It has a population of 80,000. It is within fifteen miles of water that stands at the lake level. It is situated in one of the best and loveliest countries on earth.

Such a city with such a country, such a trade and such a population having a future that will make it one of the boasts of the nation should command from congress the sum estimated for the improvement of the beautiful Grand river.

Just let the colored men of this state watch the Republicans and see how small is the part the colored men have when the feast is on.

In the Republican party the colored men are expected to vote and give office to the white men, but there is no office for the black man. He is simply the waiter at the banquet; he must pass the dishes, but touch no food; there is no plate at the table for him.

It is not necessary the colored men should vote with the Democrats and thus swallow their ancient enmity and prejudice. They should assert their independence by voting as one man either with the People's party or the Republicans and leave the Republicans to save themselves and get offices if they can without the vote of the colored friends.

Such old Federalist stock as Josiah Quincy and Edward Atkinson, in the same way with some Democrats to exult in Jefferson's birthday in Boston.

It looks as if the Democrats had carried their ridiculous investigation of the pension bureau far beyond where they should have dropped it. The investigator has become the investigatee.

Since its first introduction Electric Bitters has gained rapidly in popularity.

It will cure all ailments of the stomach, liver or kidneys. It will cure sick headache, indigestion, constipation, and drive malaria from the system.

Ten Years in GRAND RAPIDS!

DR. S. CLAY TODD, The Famous Nerve Specialist, No. 10 North Division Street, Rooms 1, 3 and 4, Grand Rapids, Mich.

CONSULTATION FREE AND CONFIDENTIAL! NO PAY for Services UNTIL CURED! Since DR. S. CLAY TODD has been acknowledged by all to be so successful in the treatment of Catarrh, Nervous Debility, Impotency, Rheumatism, all nervous and other chronic diseases, dozens of would-be specialists have tried to locate in Grand Rapids.

Some of them had, or thought they had, means of their own that the public would grasp at as a means of relief, others have been agents of some other "Cure," but all have been judged for what they were worth, which was nothing but a "catch-penny dodge" to get the people's money, when they were really looking for DR. S. CLAY TODD.

They thought from the amount of advertising being done by DR. S. CLAY TODD that there was a great amount of business in Grand Rapids, but on coming here they found themselves mistaken, as the field was all occupied, as DR. CLAY TODD was doing the work, and the people were not looking for outside help.

Young Bachelor—"I call this pretty tough, living up here in this style, but I suppose I must continue it a while longer, as my salary is too small to allow me to think of marrying, as an outfit for house keeping is one of the impossibilities. Hold! I noticed an advertisement in Heyman & Company's. They furnish a home complete and, well, on company terms at cash prices. Just the thing. I will propose tonight, for Heyman & Company, the House Furnishers, 63 and 65 Canal street."

IN GREAT AMERICA.

We Recall the Condition in Russia, but Overlook Misery Nearer Home.

Last year, according to the court records, there were 23,950 warrants for execution issued in the city of New York. In 1883 the published statistics show that over 7,000 persons died in the work-houses, insane asylums and hospitals of the same city. More than one person in every five who passed from life through some public institution. Three thousand eight hundred and fifteen or almost one person in every ten who died, found his last resting place in the potter's field.

In a recent issue of one of the great New York dailies we find the following suggestive statement, which is doubtless impressive when we remember that with the facts in their possession, the great daily press of America, which is to the average intellect the most powerful influence, makes little more than passing reference to the widespread wretchedness and rapidly increasing poverty of our day.

"It is estimated that 20,000,000 people are starving in Russia," says the metropolitan daily above referred to, "is, indeed, a terrible incident in this wonderful world. It is estimated that in this city 150,000 people go to bed every night guests of charity, not knowing where a morning meal is to come from, with nothing whatever to do, hope even being dead, is a much graver factor in the problem of our day."

The board of health of New York recently published the details of a census of tenement-houses taken last September. It is a fact that a melancholy confirmation of our repeated status by thoughtful persons who personally investigated this problem; in brief, they show the following figures: 45,000 tenements, 2,300 new tenements, 275,000 families, 1,235,000 inhabitants (an increase of 141,000, 7,000,000, 1,235,000 families, 250 child home-workers, 700 were 800 stables and 4,300 horses in the districts to pollute the air.

What is true of New York is true to a certain extent of every great city in America. The night is slowly but surely settling around hundreds of thousands of our people, the night of poverty and despair. They are conscious of its approach and powerless to check its advance. They realize the poor, as a rule, have large families; while a third die of the many who contribute a large quota to the army of struggling labor is found in the stream of emigrants who pour into our great cities, which are already congested with suffering thousands.—B. O. Flower in Arena.

In Darkest London.

The latest statistics tell us that out of London's 4,000,000 or 5,000,000 of people more than 200,000 earn less than three shillings a day per family, says a writer in Harper's Bazar. Between 40,000 and 45,000 children in London are obliged to go to school hungry every morning, and rarely know at any time what it is to have sufficient food.

They tell us also that one week's income of the owners of London's goods, the value of which increases at the rate of over $1,000,000 annually, would provide a dinner every day in the year for each one of the 40,000 ill fed children, and the London's million poor could be decently housed on the increased increment of a year.

Facts like these, pictures like this one before us, naturally raise in our minds the question whether the time is not ripe for the favored and happy to stop and "consider" the problem of the poor. The saddest picture without doubt, which goes on building a pyramid of profit by piling convincing fact on fact, states that London has over 30,000 people who have no home and no shelter but that afforded by the freemasonry doss house and the casual ward.

HEALING WITHOUT MEDICINE.

A Marvelous Exhibition—Hartman's Hall Filled With People—Strange Cures.

No public exhibition ever given in Grand Rapids has drawn out the masses like the free public healing of the sick at Hartman's hall every morning from 10 to 11 o'clock. His free extemporaneous lectures on the obscure subjects of magnetism and kindred subjects that every day precedes his work of healing, show that he is a ready speaker. Every morning the hall is filled with people seeking to be healed through his magnetic touch and the sick and afflicted crowd about him at the close of each exercise to grasp his hand or steal a word of counsel from an afflicted friend or relative. They often follow the doctor all the way to his office parlors at the Vendome hotel to consult him about their maladies. Before his office hours begin at 9 in the morning and after they close at 6 in the evening the people are there to consult him.

Yesterday morning an old gentleman bobbed upon the stage crippled with rheumatism and in less than five minutes he ran about the stage laughing like a boy saying that he had not felt so simple and comfortable in six years. The Rev. H. C. Galbraith came up exhausted and weak saying he had not been able to dress himself for months. Dr. French made a few magnetic passes about the afflicted parts and greatly to the amusement of the audience he began to give the most positive evidence of a perfect cure. He blessed and thanked the doctor and the audience followed him in demonstrative cheers. Dr. French will continue to heal the sick every morning from 10 to 11 o'clock except Sunday mornings in Hartman's hall and invites everybody to go to the hall and witness the greatest power ever given to man.

Dr. French has taken parlors at the Vendome hotel, easy of access to all, and consults free of charge from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. except on the days he has. He treats every known disease, and cures piles, fissure and rupture without surgery. He also cures all kinds of female complaint without exposure or instruments, and cures when all other means fail. Do not allow prejudice to blind you but call and see Dr. French. Admission and treatment at the hall free, consultation at his office one free. Letters must contain stamp.

LADIES, WHILE OUT SHOPPING.
