

SOLES OF MUDDY WATER

A DREARY WASTE OF DESOLATION AND DEATH

The Situation at St. Louis More Alarming and Discouraging Than at Any Time Since the Flood Began—A Special Session of the Legislature Probable

St. Louis, May 21.—When daylight spread over the submerged districts in the Mississippi and Missouri valleys this morning the outlook was more discouraging than at any time since the beginning of the flood.

The temporary fall of the river was checked late last night and the water is again rising, with no prospect of cessation until it reaches the highest point registered in the last half century.

From Alton to St. Charles, twelve miles from the mouth of the Missouri river, the country is one vast body of muddy water. The high has worked its way around the land and for miles back of the cities the country is inundated to a depth of from four to five feet.

The same condition exists for many miles down the river toward St. Louis, and should the flood begin to recede today it will be many weeks before the river will have returned to its regular channel.

The amount of damage and suffering caused by the overflow can scarcely be estimated. The whole country is a desolate waste. Hundreds of families are homeless, their homes and barns are drowned and crops destroyed.

To add to the serious condition of the beleaguered people sickness has overtaken them to an alarming extent. They have been reduced to a state of starvation, poorly constructed buildings, and as a result of the exposure many families are suffering from pneumonia and other sickness incidental to cold and wet weather.

Only the cry of distress and appeals for relief have been sounded, and the people are now dependent upon the charity of their friends. The cry for aid has been heard and is meeting with quick and substantial recognition. A public relief committee was organized in this city, and already $100,000 has been subscribed for the relief of the destitute.

Governor Eiler of Illinois and staff rode from Alton this morning, accompanied by the Alton relief committee, boarded a steamer and began a tour of the distressed districts. It is believed, if necessary, call a special session of the Illinois legislature with a view of having the Alton relief committee to cooperate with America to rehabilitate silver and then to let the price rise high enough to compensate speculators.

Mr. Deacon is confined in the prison adjacent to the palace of justice. His health is improving, but he is not permitted to attend him. He has a comfortable room and is treated kindly and respectfully by his jailers. None of his friends have yet, however, been permitted to see him.

VERY CONSIDERATE

The Treatment Accorded in Prison to Edward Deacon

St. Louis, May 21.—Edmund is being made to procure a pardon or at least a lessening of sentence for Edward Parker Deacon, who was yesterday sentenced to a year's imprisonment for causing the death of his wife's lover, M. Abelle.

Deacon's brother, Austin D. Deacon, had a conference today with M. Bret, a distinguished lawyer, and others, he then called upon the prefect to see what steps could be taken to secure a mitigation of the sentence.

There is no denying the fact that the conviction of Mr. Deacon is not in accord with public sentiment here. After Austin Deacon had met the prefect he reported that he had found the official willing to support an application for a modification of the term of imprisonment. The prefect to Mr. Deacon that the sentence would, under the present regulations, be reduced to four and a half months.

He would not be treated as a criminal by the prefect, but he would be treated as a man. He would be allowed to wear his own clothing and supply his own meals. His friends would have access to him three times a week, and he would be allowed to receive letters, he would be a state prisoner in name only.

Mr. Deacon said that he would remain here so as to be with his brother as much as possible. "I relieve me to know that my brother will be attended in prison. His health is breaking under the worry and anxiety he has had to undergo. He is permitted to attend him. He has a comfortable room and is treated kindly and respectfully by his jailers. None of his friends have yet, however, been permitted to see him."

Mr. Deacon replied: "Proceedings have been commenced and the case will be heard in ten or twelve days. If the slightest probability that my brother will resume marital relations with me, I will be satisfied."

Mr. Deacon is confined in the prison adjacent to the palace of justice. His health is improving, but he is not permitted to attend him. He has a comfortable room and is treated kindly and respectfully by his jailers. None of his friends have yet, however, been permitted to see him.

Mr. Deacon is confined in the prison adjacent to the palace of justice. His health is improving, but he is not permitted to attend him. He has a comfortable room and is treated kindly and respectfully by his jailers. None of his friends have yet, however, been permitted to see him.

Mr. Deacon is confined in the prison adjacent to the palace of justice. His health is improving, but he is not permitted to attend him. He has a comfortable room and is treated kindly and respectfully by his jailers. None of his friends have yet, however, been permitted to see him.

Mr. Deacon is confined in the prison adjacent to the palace of justice. His health is improving, but he is not permitted to attend him. He has a comfortable room and is treated kindly and respectfully by his jailers. None of his friends have yet, however, been permitted to see him.

Mr. Deacon is confined in the prison adjacent to the palace of justice. His health is improving, but he is not permitted to attend him. He has a comfortable room and is treated kindly and respectfully by his jailers. None of his friends have yet, however, been permitted to see him.

A SECRET CONFERENCE

DELEGATES TO MINNEAPOLIS TALK ABOUT "TRANSPORTATION"

Twenty-one of the Twenty-eight Delegates and Alternates Confer and Banquet in Detroit—Their Consultations Guarded

Detroit, May 21.—Considerable talk was indulged in today over the secret meeting at the Russell house last evening of the Michigan delegation to the national convention. It was given out that the meeting was for the purpose of determining upon a route to be taken to Minneapolis, terms of transportation, etc., but certainly there could have been no guarded doors and the exclusion of reporters.

There were twenty-one of the twenty-eight delegates and alternates present. Wm. A. Gavett, the true blue, all the time and all around Blaine boomer kept close watch of the door all the evening ostensibly in the interest of his road.

The names of the delegates were: Clark and other Republican friends at General Alger's residence, the Blaine and Alger talk scattered broadcast by the political news bureau at Washington, and other signs noticed by sharp-eyed observers.

Alger is pleased with the combination of Blaine and Alger. He believes, however, that he would stand a chance being elected to the nomination of Blaine and Alger. His combination is so far none of the participants have looked.

Alger is pleased with the combination of Blaine and Alger. He believes, however, that he would stand a chance being elected to the nomination of Blaine and Alger. His combination is so far none of the participants have looked.

Alger is pleased with the combination of Blaine and Alger. He believes, however, that he would stand a chance being elected to the nomination of Blaine and Alger. His combination is so far none of the participants have looked.

Alger is pleased with the combination of Blaine and Alger. He believes, however, that he would stand a chance being elected to the nomination of Blaine and Alger. His combination is so far none of the participants have looked.

Alger is pleased with the combination of Blaine and Alger. He believes, however, that he would stand a chance being elected to the nomination of Blaine and Alger. His combination is so far none of the participants have looked.

Alger is pleased with the combination of Blaine and Alger. He believes, however, that he would stand a chance being elected to the nomination of Blaine and Alger. His combination is so far none of the participants have looked.

Alger is pleased with the combination of Blaine and Alger. He believes, however, that he would stand a chance being elected to the nomination of Blaine and Alger. His combination is so far none of the participants have looked.

LIVES NOW CHAMPION

Ives Still on at the Chicago Billiard Turney

Chicago, May 21.—Frank Ives to night won his eighth billiard championship by defeating Slosson. The match lasted thirty innings and the "student" had only 409 to his credit when Ives made his 800 points. Ives' highest break was 134. He won the fourth Slosson run 120. Ives' average was 86.23 and Slosson's 84.45.

Central Music hall was packed tonight by a large crowd of billiard enthusiasts to witness the championship match. The game was 400 points, 14 inch ball line for the championship emblem, $1,000 state money and net receipts. After Slosson's great effort in the fourth Slosson run, Ives' match fell on shots that the greenest novice might have made.

Ives' match fell on shots that the greenest novice might have made. Ives' match fell on shots that the greenest novice might have made. Ives' match fell on shots that the greenest novice might have made.

Ives' match fell on shots that the greenest novice might have made. Ives' match fell on shots that the greenest novice might have made. Ives' match fell on shots that the greenest novice might have made.

Ives' match fell on shots that the greenest novice might have made. Ives' match fell on shots that the greenest novice might have made. Ives' match fell on shots that the greenest novice might have made.

Ives' match fell on shots that the greenest novice might have made. Ives' match fell on shots that the greenest novice might have made. Ives' match fell on shots that the greenest novice might have made.

Ives' match fell on shots that the greenest novice might have made. Ives' match fell on shots that the greenest novice might have made. Ives' match fell on shots that the greenest novice might have made.

Ives' match fell on shots that the greenest novice might have made. Ives' match fell on shots that the greenest novice might have made. Ives' match fell on shots that the greenest novice might have made.

Ives' match fell on shots that the greenest novice might have made. Ives' match fell on shots that the greenest novice might have made. Ives' match fell on shots that the greenest novice might have made.

Ives' match fell on shots that the greenest novice might have made. Ives' match fell on shots that the greenest novice might have made. Ives' match fell on shots that the greenest novice might have made.

Ives' match fell on shots that the greenest novice might have made. Ives' match fell on shots that the greenest novice might have made. Ives' match fell on shots that the greenest novice might have made.

THE RETAIL DEALERS

THE FURNITURE MEN WILL ALL BE HERE IN JULY

Elegant Invitations Sent Out Over the Country—The Programs Laid Out by the Board of Trade—A Grand Time Here, as Well as Time for Business

The National Retail Furniture Dealers' convention, to be held here July 12 and 13, will be an important gathering, and the board of trade is making considerable preparation to entertain the members. Handsome invitations were issued yesterday. Each invitee is accompanied by an elegantly engraved programme, illustrated with illustrations of prominent buildings and factories in the city. They will be sent to all the retailers in the country.

The programme for the two days is as follows: 10 a. m.—Convention called to order, address of welcome by W. J. Stuart, mayor of the city of Grand Rapids.

10 a. m.—Convention called to order, address of welcome by W. J. Stuart, mayor of the city of Grand Rapids. 10 a. m.—Convention called to order, address of welcome by W. J. Stuart, mayor of the city of Grand Rapids.

10 a. m.—Convention called to order, address of welcome by W. J. Stuart, mayor of the city of Grand Rapids. 10 a. m.—Convention called to order, address of welcome by W. J. Stuart, mayor of the city of Grand Rapids.

10 a. m.—Convention called to order, address of welcome by W. J. Stuart, mayor of the city of Grand Rapids. 10 a. m.—Convention called to order, address of welcome by W. J. Stuart, mayor of the city of Grand Rapids.

10 a. m.—Convention called to order, address of welcome by W. J. Stuart, mayor of the city of Grand Rapids. 10 a. m.—Convention called to order, address of welcome by W. J. Stuart, mayor of the city of Grand Rapids.

10 a. m.—Convention called to order, address of welcome by W. J. Stuart, mayor of the city of Grand Rapids. 10 a. m.—Convention called to order, address of welcome by W. J. Stuart, mayor of the city of Grand Rapids.

10 a. m.—Convention called to order, address of welcome by W. J. Stuart, mayor of the city of Grand Rapids. 10 a. m.—Convention called to order, address of welcome by W. J. Stuart, mayor of the city of Grand Rapids.

10 a. m.—Convention called to order, address of welcome by W. J. Stuart, mayor of the city of Grand Rapids. 10 a. m.—Convention called to order, address of welcome by W. J. Stuart, mayor of the city of Grand Rapids.

10 a. m.—Convention called to order, address of welcome by W. J. Stuart, mayor of the city of Grand Rapids. 10 a. m.—Convention called to order, address of welcome by W. J. Stuart, mayor of the city of Grand Rapids.

ARE ASKING FOR AID

THE PEOPLE OF SIOUX CITY COMPELLED TO SOLICIT HELP

The Destruction Was Greater By Far Than at First Estimated, and Contributions for the Sufferers Will Be Greatly Increased—Cry, Aid and Snow

Sioux City, Ia., May 21.—Only one more body has been found. The sensational reports sent out about another flood from Big Sioux river last night are unfounded. It is cold and snowing, but no further floods are expected. Sufferers are being cared for.

At a joint meeting of the committees appointed by the citizens of Sioux City to provide ways and means for the relief of flood sufferers held this morning it was agreed to ask for the benevolent people of the country that the losses far exceed the first estimate, and that whatever aid may be offered will be gratefully accepted.

All contributions should be made to the relief fund, care of the city treasurer, or to the relief committee. The relief committee is now receiving contributions for the relief of flood sufferers.

The relief committee is now receiving contributions for the relief of flood sufferers. The relief committee is now receiving contributions for the relief of flood sufferers.

The relief committee is now receiving contributions for the relief of flood sufferers. The relief committee is now receiving contributions for the relief of flood sufferers.

The relief committee is now receiving contributions for the relief of flood sufferers. The relief committee is now receiving contributions for the relief of flood sufferers.

The relief committee is now receiving contributions for the relief of flood sufferers. The relief committee is now receiving contributions for the relief of flood sufferers.

The relief committee is now receiving contributions for the relief of flood sufferers. The relief committee is now receiving contributions for the relief of flood sufferers.

The relief committee is now receiving contributions for the relief of flood sufferers. The relief committee is now receiving contributions for the relief of flood sufferers.

The relief committee is now receiving contributions for the relief of flood sufferers. The relief committee is now receiving contributions for the relief of flood sufferers.

SEVERE LOSS IN OSWEGO

Five Elevators Burned With a Loss of $400,000

Oswego, N. Y., May 21.—Shortly after 11 o'clock last night a fire broke out in the upper stories of the Washington hotel, and destroyed, owned by Fenwick Lyon & Co. The Washington hotel was the center of a block of five elevators. The Corn Exchange and the Continental elevators were to the south and the Columbia and Merchants' elevators were to the north.

The fire spread rapidly, and was extinguished from Syracuse and Aid was summoned. A fire truck with difficulty arrived. The fire was extinguished, but the damage was done.

The fire spread rapidly, and was extinguished from Syracuse and Aid was summoned. A fire truck with difficulty arrived. The fire was extinguished, but the damage was done.

The fire spread rapidly, and was extinguished from Syracuse and Aid was summoned. A fire truck with difficulty arrived. The fire was extinguished, but the damage was done.

The fire spread rapidly, and was extinguished from Syracuse and Aid was summoned. A fire truck with difficulty arrived. The fire was extinguished, but the damage was done.

The fire spread rapidly, and was extinguished from Syracuse and Aid was summoned. A fire truck with difficulty arrived. The fire was extinguished, but the damage was done.

The fire spread rapidly, and was extinguished from Syracuse and Aid was summoned. A fire truck with difficulty arrived. The fire was extinguished, but the damage was done.

The fire spread rapidly, and was extinguished from Syracuse and Aid was summoned. A fire truck with difficulty arrived. The fire was extinguished, but the damage was done.

The fire spread rapidly, and was extinguished from Syracuse and Aid was summoned. A fire truck with difficulty arrived. The fire was extinguished, but the damage was done.

The fire spread rapidly, and was extinguished from Syracuse and Aid was summoned. A fire truck with difficulty arrived. The fire was extinguished, but the damage was done.

The fire spread rapidly, and was extinguished from Syracuse and Aid was summoned. A fire truck with difficulty arrived. The fire was extinguished, but the damage was done.

HIS WARM RECEPTION

The Allied Ex-Prisary Robert Egred in Danville

Danville, Ill., May 21.—Ex-Prisary Slatery and his wife, formerly known as Sister Mary Elizabeth of Boston, arrived here Wednesday forenoon. When they entered the hotel dining room for dinner this afternoon, they were greeted by a large number of friends.

Mr. Slatery, now a Baptist preacher, has aroused decided interest in Danville. He is a well-known figure in the city, and his presence is a source of interest to many.

Mr. Slatery, now a Baptist preacher, has aroused decided interest in Danville. He is a well-known figure in the city, and his presence is a source of interest to many.

Mr. Slatery, now a Baptist preacher, has aroused decided interest in Danville. He is a well-known figure in the city, and his presence is a source of interest to many.

AILED THE MESSENGER

Work of Four Train Robbers on Florida Railroad

Jacksonville, Fla., May 21.—North-bound train No. 14 on the Jacksonville, Tampa and Gulf railway was robbed by four men near Hammock Station, five miles north of Jacksonville at 1:30 o'clock this morning by four masked robbers, who in a desperate attempt to secure the money of the Southern Express company killed the driver, James Cox, and badly wounded Safford, the agent. L. M. Cox.

The train was stopped by the waving of a white flag. The robbers, who were armed with revolvers, jumped up, one on each side of the engine, and compelled the engineer to stop the train down on the tracks, two hundred yards distant. While this was being done, the robbers entered the express-car, and in an attempt to rob the passengers, they killed Cox and badly wounded Safford.

The train was stopped by the waving of a white flag. The robbers, who were armed with revolvers, jumped up, one on each side of the engine, and compelled the engineer to stop the train down on the tracks, two hundred yards distant. While this was being done, the robbers entered the express-car, and in an attempt to rob the passengers, they killed Cox and badly wounded Safford.

The train was stopped by the waving of a white flag. The robbers, who were armed with revolvers, jumped up, one on each side of the engine, and compelled the engineer to stop the train down on the tracks, two hundred yards distant. While this was being done, the robbers entered the express-car, and in an attempt to rob the passengers, they killed Cox and badly wounded Safford.

ESTIMATE OF THE EFFECT OF THE FLOOD AT KANSAS CITY

Estimated at $5,000,000

Kansas City, Mo., May 21.—The Missouri River rose about an inch last night and is now stationary again, with reports from above indicating that a fall is imminent. The water is still high, and is still threatening here today.

The water began to go down a week ago, and is now about an inch above its normal level. There are no reports from above indicating that a fall is imminent.

The water began to go down a week ago, and is now about an inch above its normal level. There are no reports from above indicating that a fall is imminent.

The water began to go down a week ago, and is now about an inch above its normal level. There are no reports from above indicating that a fall is imminent.

TRAVELING PASSENGER AGENT

Charles W. Mills has been received by James D. Lacey, at New Orleans, a letter transmitting the particulars of Charles W. Mills' death. He died this morning at New Orleans. The contract has been guaranteed, so that no body cannot be brought here for burial at least until cold weather sets in. It was his intention to visit his home here, and to be buried here.

Charles W. Mills has been received by James D. Lacey, at New Orleans, a letter transmitting the particulars of Charles W. Mills' death. He died this morning at New Orleans. The contract has been guaranteed, so that no body cannot be brought here for burial at least until cold weather sets in.

Charles W. Mills has been received by James D. Lacey, at New Orleans, a letter transmitting the particulars of Charles W. Mills' death. He died this morning at New Orleans. The contract has been guaranteed, so that no body cannot be brought here for burial at least until cold weather sets in.

Charles W. Mills has been received by James D. Lacey, at New Orleans, a letter transmitting the particulars of Charles W. Mills' death. He died this morning at New Orleans. The contract has been guaranteed, so that no body cannot be brought here for burial at least until cold weather sets in.

Charles W. Mills has been received by James D. Lacey, at New Orleans, a letter transmitting the particulars of Charles W. Mills' death. He died this morning at New Orleans. The contract has been guaranteed, so that no body cannot be brought here for burial at least until cold weather sets in.

TRAVELING PASSENGER AGENT

Charles W. Mills has been received by James D. Lacey, at New Orleans, a letter transmitting the particulars of Charles W. Mills' death. He died this morning at New Orleans. The contract has been guaranteed, so that no body cannot be brought here for burial at least until cold weather sets in.

Charles W. Mills has been received by James D. Lacey, at New Orleans, a letter transmitting the particulars of Charles W. Mills' death. He died this morning at New Orleans. The contract has been guaranteed, so that no body cannot be brought here for burial at least until cold weather sets in.

Charles W. Mills has been received by James D. Lacey, at New Orleans, a letter transmitting the particulars of Charles W. Mills' death. He died this morning at New Orleans. The contract has been guaranteed, so that no body cannot be brought here for burial at least until cold weather sets in.

Charles W. Mills has been received by James D. Lacey, at New Orleans, a letter transmitting the particulars of Charles W. Mills' death. He died this morning at New Orleans. The contract has been guaranteed, so that no body cannot be brought here for burial at least until cold weather sets in.

Charles W. Mills has been received by James D. Lacey, at New Orleans, a letter transmitting the particulars of Charles W. Mills' death. He died this morning at New Orleans. The contract has been guaranteed, so that no body cannot be brought here for burial at least until cold weather sets in.

HOUSE FILLED FULL OF SAND FROM MANY MILES AWAY

TEXARKANA, ARK., May 21.—To add to the demoralization already wrought by the destruction of a Red river, which has flooded thousands of acres and driven inhabitants to the hills, a storm of wind and rain, cyclonic in its nature, swept over this section of country yesterday, doing much damage to its track-destination and desolation.

The storm did not touch the city and was not known of here until last night. The storm was unprecedented in its fury and heavy timbers now block the public highways leading into this city, two miles distant, so that it is not possible to reach this point, even on foot.

The storm came from the northeast, and notwithstanding there is not a drop of rain within its radius, it has killed several horses that were open at this hour were filled with sand in an instant.

The storm came from the northeast, and notwithstanding there is not a drop of rain within its radius, it has killed several horses that were open at this hour were filled with sand in an instant.

The storm came from the northeast, and notwithstanding there is not a drop of rain within its radius, it has killed several horses that were open at this hour were filled with sand in an instant.

BLANKET WON'T TELL

He Talked With Blaine But Will Not Tell

WASHINGTON, May 21.—Congressman Bolkamp spent an hour with Secretary Blaine this morning. He said to a correspondent later: "There is nothing else like them in the whole range of musical entertainment, and it is a pleasure to see other acts admirably supplement and complete and add to the enjoyment of the audience. I understand they understand each other completely, and are in absolute sympathy with each other. They are under such conditions, together with vocal ability of such high order in each member of the quartet, that the quartet can readily be imagined. Mr. Henschel's accompaniments are a liberal and in itself difficult and much neglected art."

Mr. and Mrs. Henschel who appear as soloists in the quartet, are well known to the audience of the quartet, and are well known to the audience of the quartet, and are well known to the audience of the quartet.

Mr. and Mrs. Henschel who appear as soloists in the quartet, are well known to the audience of the quartet, and are well known to the audience of the quartet, and are well known to the audience of the quartet.

Mr. and Mrs. Henschel who appear as soloists in the quartet, are well known to the audience of the quartet, and are well known to the audience of the quartet, and are well known to the audience of the quartet.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—At the White House today Mrs. Harrison is reported to be considerably improved.

Miss M. A. FORTNEY, 103 Monroe street, opened her ice cream parlor yesterday.

SPECIAL SALE of plush rockers at E. Burkhardt's, 119 Canal street.

EVANORATED APPLES, 4 pounds, 25c. KILBURN'S GROCERY.

THE FURNITURE MEN WILL ALL BE HERE IN JULY

THE PEOPLE OF SIOUX CITY COMPELLED TO SOLICIT HELP

SEVERE LOSS IN OSWEGO

THE MODERN DRAMA.

IS EXTRAVAGANT REALISM THE PROPER THING?

A Writer Who Thinks that it is Not— A Rebuke to the Morbid Desire for Plays of the Zola Order—Lawrence Barrymore's Idea.

Does the modern drama with its realism, its extravagance, its suggestive situations, and its often very plain, not to say coarse language, really represent its object, not only to entertain and amuse, but to educate, to portray life from an exalted standpoint, to elevate and to idealize—or does it cater to the misled tastes of the masses without regard to anything else? This question has often been asked and has not as yet been answered in many different ways. If Shakespeare, or Schiller, or Goethe, or Calderon, or Lessing, or Schlegel, Haase, Schlegel, or other the masters of the good old schools could see a production of one of the modern French dramas or those ultra-realistic pieces by Sudermann, Ibsen, or others, whose sole aim seems to be to portray the darkest and most revolting phases of human life, they would be horrified and disgusted. It is astonishing how men with their wives, sweethearts or daughters can afford to sit out such performances, no matter how well the roles are played. The morbid desire of persons, to see such pieces or to read one of Zola's books is indeed a pitiable one and it appears to be the plain duty of the conscientious manager not to cater to such revolting tastes, but to offer to the play-loving public productions which a father can see in company with the female members of his family without blushing. People who raise their hands in holy horror at the sight of a ballet dancer or a painting, in which there is a lavish display of personal charms, do not think it wrong to witness such performances. The critic could contribute toward leading the public to other and better fields, either by plainly expressing his disapproval of the productions of such pieces, or at least by not being too exuberant and grubbing in his praise of situations and scenes, which are more revolting and nauseating. Man only too often comes in contact with the darker side of life, and it is hardly the right thing for a dramatist to tear the cloak from the eyes of mankind and expose them to the view of those who are unfamiliar with the conditions of such conditions, and who should always be kept from knowing of them. This may be called old foginess; perhaps it is. I feel assured that the world would be shared by many fathers and mothers who love a good performance, who

HEIGHT HE STANDS OFF, 10 1/2 IN., AND IN CONDITION WEIGHS, STRIPPED, 154 LB.

He is a finely proportioned and developed athlete, and is a skillful club swinger, fencer, boxer, wrestler and runner. From childhood he has always taken a great and abiding interest in both the theory and practice of gymnastic exercises; and has ever been an enthusiastic promoter of athletics. He is a

W. F. GEARHART, graduate of the Brooklyn Normal School of Physical Education, and has taken a scientific course at the Dickinson Seminary, at Williamsport, Pa. For over two years past he has been superintendent of the Louisville A. C., for the members of which flourishing institution, which is composed of the best known young men in that city, he has worked wonders. It was a trial in the gymnasium there, Dec. 15, 1899, that he achieved a record for a double foot high kick of 7 feet 3 inches. In making this feat of jump the athlete must keep his feet side by side, without any turn over, kicking the object with both feet at the same time, and striking on the floor on both feet at once, no other part of the person touching the floor. The shoes, of course, must be a snug fit. It is a most difficult feat, and one that few athletes can accomplish with a great deal of practice. Mr. Gearhart is also a member of the faculty of the Chautauque (N. Y.) Summer School for Physical Culture.

BASEBALL NOTES. Third baseman Raymond is putting a very clever game. The Phillies were the first to knock A. Marvellous Jones out of the box. Al Baird, once Chicago's famous left fielder, has signed with Spokane Falls. The Brooklyn club will not play Sunday games until several other clubs agree to do so. Catcher Murphy and Right Fielder Bliss of the Yale team are laid up with severe injuries. Amos Rusie claims that he is still better from the cold, catching on arm has not commenced to feel good. The young ladies' team of the Dress-makers' union has challenged the Giants. Thus do New York's sorrows accumulate. There is a big howl for the Gladiators' release in the Falls City, and the Times says: "In the words of the boys about it, Browning loses a great many more games than he wins, when his work in the team is individually considered."

Says Mr. Caylor: Some of the Cincinnati players are complaining that the official ball this year is inclined to become "wingy" and does not fly off the bat with the freedom of other seasons. I have noticed the same fault, especially when our side is at bat. What we want is a ball with stomach rather than wings. The Bostoners are the ear-marks of champions. They are not in the least afraid of the cold, and they have played every one of their games on strange grounds except two. A team away from home always has a small percentage of the worst of it, and if the Bostoners do so well on a trip they certainly ought to do well before their own people.

An Old Pedestrian. Patrick Wheeler of Valley Falls, N. Y., the famous heel-and-toe walker, is ready to walk any man his age. Wheeler is away in the sixties, but he possesses the following record: He has walked over his distance. A big banquet, provided by the New York Recorder, will be given at the conclusion of the ride. There is a wall of lamentation among the spectators who have entered in the Pullman race because they have deferred their training as long as possible through fear that they might go stale before the event and now the recent rain has shut them out of at least ten days' good work. The men who ride in all sorts of weather are chuckling among themselves at the unexpected luck they have had thrown at them.

ATHLETIC EVENTS. May 25—New England Intercollegiate Athletic association annual field meet, Springfield, Mass. May 25—Annual field meeting of the Intercollegiate Amateur Athletic association, New York city. May 25—Lacrosse match, Johns Hopkins university vs. Cornell university, Baltimore, Md. May 25—Intercollegiate Lacrosse association championship match, Stevens institute vs. Lehigh university, South Bethlehem, Pa. May 25—Annual field meeting of the Intercollegiate Athletic association of Western Pennsylvania, Pittsburgh, Pa. May 25—St. George Athletic club spring games, New York city. May 25—Long Island Athletic club annual field meeting. May 30—New York State Intercollegiate Athletic association annual field meet, Ithaca, N. Y. May 30—Pacific association of the Amateur Athletic union second out-door championship games, San Francisco, Cal. May 30—Athletic club of the Seybrink navy spring games, Philadelphia, Pa. May 30—New Jersey athletic spring games, Bergen Point, N. J. May 30—Star Athletic club spring games, Long Island City. May 30—Wayne Athletic club spring games, Jersey City, N. J.

A Million Friends. A friend in need is a friend indeed, and not less than one million people have found just such a friend in Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. If you have never used this great cough medicine, one of the best in the world, it has wonderful curative powers in all diseases of throat, chest and lungs. Each bottle is guaranteed to do all that is claimed or money will be refunded. Trial bottles 10 cents at Thum Bros. & Schmidt's in New York. Large bottles 50 cents and $1.00.

PATRICK WHEELER. He is one of the physical wonders of Valley Falls, N. Y. Under new arrangements taking effect May 15, special Chicago train will leave Grand Rapids at 11:45 a. m. daily, except Sunday, via G. & E. R. and Kalamazoo, running independent of other trains, and arrive in Chicago at 5:25 p. m., with parlor buffet car attached. Light train with Wagner sleeping car will leave Grand Rapids same as now, at 7:55 a. m. Special Grand Rapids train will leave Grand Rapids 5:15 a. m., Wagner sleeping car attached. Through buffet parlor car will leave Chicago at 3:10 p. m. daily, except Sunday; arrive Grand Rapids 8:35 p. m., same as now. Ask for tickets via G. & E. R. and Kalamazoo.

SHE is in 61-63 Pearl street, Powers' Metropolitan Club, for architects, designers, furniture makers, carvers, woodcutters, boys and girls, the Architects' Evening and Day Drawing School, in Mr. Van Brunt's and Kuchan's architects' office.

A GREAT ATHLETE. Prof. W. F. Gearhart of the Louisville Athletic Club. Herewith is a portrait of the superior athlete and physical culturist of the Louisville (Ky.) Athletic club, Prof. W. F. Gearhart, a gentleman who, although but a few years before the age of a teacher of this important branch of education, is pretty widely known. He is a native of the State of Pennsylvania, having been born at Hanover, June 15, 1865, and is now not yet twenty-four years of age. In

AMONG THE CYCLERS.

WHAT IS GOING ON IN THAT FIELD OF SPORTS.

Winner of the Philadelphia-Newark Ride With a Sketch of His Life—News Notes Gleaned from All Parts of the Great Cycle.

Henry Max, whose portrait is here given, is a strong, sturdily built young man, with a strong physique. He stands 5 feet 8 inches in his socks. Max is here represented mounted upon his wheel. He is a member of several cycling clubs, and is a most enthusiastic rider. He is a leading member of the B. M. C. L. of Newark, and though but a beginner, has already made a name for himself as a first rate racing man and a hard rider. His last race was at the Belleville Avenue rink, where he defeated John Johnson in a mile and a half scrub race. Max had lots of backers in this competition. Last January, with two clubmates, Max made a century run from Newark, N. J., to Hopedale and back. The day was a bitterly cold one, and as a result had his fingers badly frozen. He is 19 years of age, and if he keeps on improving in the future as he has in the past, a most brilliant racing career is before him. He won in the Philadelphia-Newark mile run May 15, 1899. The following coming events have been registered for June 1: 28—Race meet at Baltimore. 30—First annual century run of Kansas City clubs. 30—Pullman road race. 30—Irvington-Milburn road race. 30—Martin, twenty-five mile road race, Buffalo, N. Y. 30—Hundred-mile road race, Ruthford (N. J.) Wheelmen. 30—Race meet of the Rome (N. Y.) Cyclers. 30—Twenty-five mile road race, Buffalo, N. Y. 30—Second annual twenty-five mile road race of Cleveland Wheel club, Cleveland, Ohio. 30—Tulsa mile road race of the Denver Cyclists' union. 30—Louisville Cycle club's ten mile handicap road race. 30—Race meet Alameda B. C., Alameda, Cal. 30—Race meet of the Ashbury Park (N. J.) Wheelmen. 30—Tournament of the Hay State Bicycle club, Worcester, Mass. 30—Ten mile road race of Rockland County Wheelmen, Nyack, N. Y. The League of American Wheelmen has designed a new championship emblem.

Adam Lauth and C. M. Fowler, two Illinois club members, have been expelled from the League of American Wheelmen. Temple, the professional, has the record-breaking fever again. He feels it in his blood that he is good for a mile less than 215.

To the man who, under adverse circumstances, makes the most meritorious performance in the relay ride to New York, a special prize will be given and another will be awarded to the man who sustains the best average time.

Henry Stricker, who has been playing second base on the Lafayette college nine this season, was found dead in his room at Easton, Pa. He was a member of the freshman class and lived in Jacksonville. It is supposed that heart disease was the cause of his death. The Cornell college team defeated the Seneca Falls nine April 29, at Ithaca, by a score of 7 to 6.

Isaac H. Day, father of John B. Day, the President of the New York club, died recently at Portland, Conn. He was in his 84th year.

McKeen, the short-stop of the Cleveland team, accidentally shot himself through the fleshy portion of one of his fingers while handling a revolver recently.

Foreman has been released by the Washington club. He was one of its pitchers.

The Rochester club, of the Eastern league, has released Easterday, short-stop, and has signed William Callahan, a pitcher.

An effort is being made to organize an association of minor professional clubs to be known as the Missouri Valley league.

McCreary, who was released by the Philadelphia club, of the National league and American association, is at his home at San Francisco, Cal., waiting for an engagement.

Delehanty, center fielder of the Philadelphia club, who was injured in the opening championship contest of the season at Philadelphia, is recovering and expects to be able to play before long.

McCrain, the new umpire on the staff of the National league and American association, officiated for the first time in a championship contest, April 29, at St. Louis.

THE CHESS PROBLEM. Here is a piece of chess strategy that we require considerable effort to solve:

REMEMBER, FOR ONE DAY ONLY, TUESDAY, MAY 24, AT EHRMAN'S SHOE HOUSE, 69 CANAL STREET.

ADAM NELL, 50 MONROE STREET, MERCHANT TAILOR.

ADAM NELL, 50 MONROE STREET, MERCHANT TAILOR.

ADAM NELL, 50 MONROE STREET, MERCHANT TAILOR.

BILLIARDS AND POOL.

"Yank" Adams, who had been billed to give exhibitions in the principal cities of New England, has been obliged to cancel all engagements, owing to a slight but painful cut in the thumb of his cunning right hand.

This Paris tournament has not yet been announced, and negotiations are still pending between the Parisian billiard experts and the Ives-Schaefer-Slosson combination, through the Paris houses of the Brunswick-Balke-Coller company.

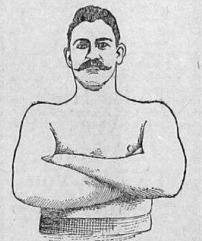

Maurice Daly and family have deserted Brooklyn as a place of residence, and are now domiciled in New York. Lucien Piot has retired from the management of the Grand cafe, Paris, and has joined the gallery of stars at Vignaux's academy. With Carter, Vignaux and Piot as a "big four," the Vignaux academy should hold a hand of trump cards which it should be hard to beat.

The holding of a great pool tournament for the championship of the world is being agitated by M. H. & J. Murray of Murray's Billiard garden, Newark, N. J. The tournament will be held in the large hall connected with the garden, and all the experts will be invited to compete for money prizes aggregating $3,000.

Edward McLaughlin and William M. Daddis are to contend for the championship of Pennsylvania in St. George's hall, Philadelphia, for the State emblem and $150 a side.

TO CHALLENGE THE WORLD.

A New York Pugilist Who Considers Himself the Coming Man. John L. McLean, whose portrait appears herewith, was born in the Province of Quebec, Canada, and was raised in the United States. He stands 6 feet 2-1/2 inches; chest measures 44 inches, and weighs 226 pounds. He is a pupil of DOMINIC M'CAFFEY, of Dominic Mc Caffrey, the boxing instructor of the Manhattan Athletic club and is a very clever boxer. He will shortly issue a challenge to meet any man in the world in the prize ring arena. McLean is now being trained by Mc Caffrey.

DIAMOND DUST.

Henry Stricker, who has been playing second base on the Lafayette college nine this season, was found dead in his room at Easton, Pa. He was a member of the freshman class and lived in Jacksonville. It is supposed that heart disease was the cause of his death.

The Cornell college team defeated the Seneca Falls nine April 29, at Ithaca, by a score of 7 to 6.

Isaac H. Day, father of John B. Day, the President of the New York club, died recently at Portland, Conn. He was in his 84th year.

McKeen, the short-stop of the Cleveland team, accidentally shot himself through the fleshy portion of one of his fingers while handling a revolver recently.

Foreman has been released by the Washington club. He was one of its pitchers.

The Rochester club, of the Eastern league, has released Easterday, short-stop, and has signed William Callahan, a pitcher.

An effort is being made to organize an association of minor professional clubs to be known as the Missouri Valley league.

McCreary, who was released by the Philadelphia club, of the National league and American association, is at his home at San Francisco, Cal., waiting for an engagement.

Delehanty, center fielder of the Philadelphia club, who was injured in the opening championship contest of the season at Philadelphia, is recovering and expects to be able to play before long.

McCrain, the new umpire on the staff of the National league and American association, officiated for the first time in a championship contest, April 29, at St. Louis.

THE CHESS PROBLEM. Here is a piece of chess strategy that we require considerable effort to solve:

REMEMBER, FOR ONE DAY ONLY, TUESDAY, MAY 24, AT EHRMAN'S SHOE HOUSE, 69 CANAL STREET.

ADAM NELL, 50 MONROE STREET, MERCHANT TAILOR.

Smith & Sanford

Offer special inducements to all in need of Carpets and Draperies.

We are the Largest Exclusive House in the state.

We show a larger variety than any of our competitors.

We sell all goods at an honest price and guarantee everything as represented.

We are a wholesale as well as a retail house.

We furnish hotels, steamboats, societies, churches and, in fact, everybody we can, with carpets and draperies.

We want you for our friends.

COME AND SEE US. Smith & Sanford, 68 Monroe Street.

SPECIAL NOTICE

Greatest Shoe Sale in the History of Grand Rapids.

TUESDAY, MAY 24, AT M. Ehrman's BARGAIN SHOE HOUSE, 69 CANAL STREET.

We Will Sell for This Day Only Sale Begins at 8 a. m. Tuesday, May 24.

1,200 Pairs Of Ladies Dongola Button Shoes, all styles and sizes, from 2 1/2 to 7, D and E lasts, Opera or C. S. Toes and Heels, at 97 CENTS

These are fine goods, nicely made, and are the latest lasts, worth regular $2. If you need shoes be sure and attend this sale. All other goods in the same proportion.

REMEMBER, FOR ONE DAY ONLY, TUESDAY, MAY 24, AT EHRMAN'S SHOE HOUSE, 69 CANAL STREET.

ADAM NELL, 50 MONROE STREET, MERCHANT TAILOR.

ADAM NELL, 50 MONROE STREET, MERCHANT TAILOR.

ADAM NELL, 50 MONROE STREET, MERCHANT TAILOR.

ADAM NELL, 50 MONROE STREET, MERCHANT TAILOR.

ADAM NELL, 50 MONROE STREET, MERCHANT TAILOR.

ADAM NELL, 50 MONROE STREET, MERCHANT TAILOR.

ADAM NELL, 50 MONROE STREET, MERCHANT TAILOR.

ADAM NELL, 50 MONROE STREET, MERCHANT TAILOR.

ADAM NELL, 50 MONROE STREET, MERCHANT TAILOR.

TO MAKE PLANTS BLOOM

Prof. S. T. Maynard, Prof. of Floriculture, Massachusetts Agricultural College, has written a little book, "Window Gardening" which we send free with each package of our Flower Food.

This little book contains directions for planting, potting and repotting house plants; slipping and rooting, wintering, washing and transplanting. Also a treatise on decorative plants.

I'm going to make my own house plants bloom.

TO PRESERVE CUT FLOWERS

And in short everything that a lover of flowers wants to know about her plants.

T. R. RENWICK & Co. 123 MONROE STREET. Telephone 148.

DR. L. L. CONKEY, V. S. No 4 Canal street, opposite Sweets' Hotel.

He is a Veterinarian of merit. As a surgeon he cannot be beaten. D. A. Hooper, Grand Rapids, Mich.

I consider him the most successful surgeon I ever employed. Boston Harbor Palladium. Noted Dam College, Indiana.

He will employ me no other surgeon than I can get him. Asst. Surg. St. Ry. Co., Grand Rapids.

We employ Dr. Conkey and recommend him to others. KUSTERER BREWING COMPANY.

The doctor's skill is beyond dispute pre-eminently. The Boston Harbor Palladium.

Dr. Conkey knows his business and you make no mistake when you employ him.—Three Oaks Quill.

As a surgeon he has no superior. DAVID HILL, Dovesville, Mich. I do not think he has a superior in the United States. Holland, Mich. The reporter left the scene with a new feeling of confidence in the Veterinarian, knowing that the hands of one who thoroughly understands his business and the country's unquestionable merit.—Telegram Herald. I doubt if there is a better qualified surgeon in the state. Three Oaks, Mich.

REPUTATED GHOULS

MAY DAY DIDN'T SUIT THE NEWS

FAKIRS AND CLUBBERS.

Not the Blood Letting They Topped For

Chicago's Mr. Patterson Afloat on the Red-Flag—How They Do Things in the Banner Free City of a Free Country.

Looked at from the standpoint of the 'guardians of society,' May Day was a complete fiasco both in this country and Europe. According to the foreign correspondents of our great American dailies, England and the Continent were resting on volcanoes for weeks prior to

May 1, and all the fuss leading to carefully placed dynamite mines were to be trivial on that day. Great preparations therein, unparalleled in the records of strong governments, were made to cope with the fiendish uprising contemplated by

'unscrupulous and bloodthirsty leaders.'

In France, Germany and Italy death and destruction were to hold regal sway, and the misled workmen were to be slaughtered and be slaughtered. At least that was the way it looked to the blasphemous correspondent. What a disappointment the tameness of the celebration may have been to the authors of lurid prophesies!

The ignorant and malicious, who are so prejudiced against the common people that they refer to them as 'the masses,' saying that the authorities were forewarned and forearmed and that only the peace and most impressive preparations for the preservation of peace and order prevented the programmes of the 'enemies of society' from being carried out. Concerned if the $2,000,000 of organized workmen in Germany had decided to raise a rumpus on May 1, fear of the people's anger would not have stopped them. And it must not be forgotten that, under the military law of Germany, young men who were workmen yesterday are soldiers today, and the soldier of today will be a workman tomorrow. The rulers of Germany, like those of France, are greatly dependent upon to shoot down workmen. Then take England. There was meeting in Hyde Park, London, which was attended by over 500,000 workmen, and radical addresses were made by unionists and socialists, who could if they had desired, have had that vast army loose upon the city. The workmen of England and the Continent expect to be met by peaceful means, and they will do so if they are not forced into other channels by the arrogance and treachery of the powers that be.

As for the dynamites, generally thought improperly stigmatized anarchists are not a part of the labor movement. They are not recognized by organized labor; that they have at times its sympathy is due to the persistent efforts of the authorities and bourgeois press to make the whole economic movement responsible for the acts of a few crazed leaders of a system which they could be changed into a system of peace and order. They are not behind

Europe in this matter. Look at Chicago—the city of Chicago, 1892, and 1894.

That there was not serious trouble in that city on the 1st of May was not the fault of the police. They did all they could to raise a rumpus, and such has been their conduct on every possible occasion for six or seven years.

Who is the chief of police of that city to assume that a procession of the workmen necessitated the calling out of all the reserves of the force and the sending out of hundreds of soldiers to mingle among decent working people who were holding a peaceable celebration? Was an insult to the best element of Chicago's citizens.

The authorities of Chicago are daft on the subject. The police faces of half starved working women look red in the eyes of a Chicago policeman. They are red mad. The reserves are called out when the anarchy heroically displays red in the sky. Now I want you to understand that I yield to no man when it comes to a sensible and proud regard for the flag of this country, but the monkeys which the police authorities set up over the red flag disgust me.

Who then is the chief of police of Chicago to have decided that the red flag is the symbol of anarchy or lawlessness? The anarchists themselves do not lay claim to it. The police of Chicago have on several occasions been forced to return to unions their red flags, and the police of Chicago have red headed, red nosed, red eyed captains. Of the three taken out of the procession on May 1, two were returned to their owners and the following day, and the other will be recovered by writ of replevin if necessary.

It is clear to me that the outcry against red banners is only an excuse put forward by the minions of the haters of the labor organization to enable them to harass and impede the great movement which they fear will accomplish the freedom of the wage slave.

The Inter Ocean, the simon pure organ of the pigskin aristocracy of Chicago, says:

This is a free country, and Chicago is the city in which the theory of freedom is best and most ample illustration as practice. With a real or fancied grievance is hindered from proclaiming it aloud in Chicago, and for that matter with an issue, there is prevented from an attempt to make converts to it.

So you see they are still trying to convert to it. It is not necessary to produce proof that the Inter

Ocean's statement is a lie; any reader knows it. The Herald, which is not a servile tool of the monopolist, tells another story. It says of the May Day celebration:

It is to be regretted that the presence of an army of policemen was considered necessary to prevent any serious disturbance. The surveillance of the authorities was not in keeping with the occasion. The workmen of Chicago are peaceable and law abiding, as well as intelligent and patriotic. They are friends of government and would constitute its most valiant defense if it should be assailed.

It is not stuck to red; if there is anything I labor it is red shamed. But as long as green, blue and yellow flags are carried through the streets of our cities and from our public buildings, and while our own starchy banner is about one-half red, and we are not at war with any people whose emblem is red, I re-strictly condemn the conduct of Chicago's authorities. If the blue coated mil-lits of that city would keep their eyes open for the thieves in and out of their connet they wouldn't have so much time to devote to starting on pieces of lumina-tion. My son has just come in from the doctor's office with a bandage around his head. The doctor says he has had a case of "pink eye." I suppose he has been reading the reports of interviews with

Chicago's chief of police which were lying on my table.

The Chicago Tribune resents the charge that the rich do not use their money for the good of human kind, and in support of its position claims that no less than $90,000,000 a year is given in bequests and donations "for public uses in this country. As the sum stated by

The Tribune is estimated it is probable that the amount is too high, but let that pass. Such work done is fairly creditable with charities maintained by the benevolence of the rich is not so. By the trillion of the rich, it is estimated that one-third of the amount goes to colleges and universities, which are practically barricaded against the poor, for the simple reason that the cost of attendance at these institutions of learning remains too high for the children of the common people to avail themselves of the benefits supposed to be conferred by the munificent bequests. One-fifth of the whole

HUMBUSG OF CHARITY

SOCIETIES WHICH PRETEND TO AFFORD THE POOR AND NEEDY.

The Truth About the Hoisted Relief Which Alleged Philanthropy Gives to the Transients—Testimony of an Impartial Investigator.

"The greatest of these is charity." And as the "comfortable classes" lay claim to and generally secure the best of everything, who are being constantly told by the spokesmen of the charities out of their treasures they are spending millions annually to relieve the distress of the poor. The annual reports of the charity societies, with their glowing accounts of the blowing of capitalist paper boats, tell us how kind the havelaris are to the have-nots. A few observing people are thinking that there is more about blowing than feeding. The Rev. Dr. B. E. De Costa, of New York, in a recent lecture said:

The Charity Organization society is a humbug and fraud. It does not recognize the fact that the poor are not a class, but that it is a conspiracy against society. It is supported by wealthy people who are unable to pay ten dollars a year to the society to their duty to their brethren. It is supported by philanthropists who are unable to pay ten dollars a year to the society to their duty to their brethren. It is supported by philanthropists who are unable to pay ten dollars a year to the society to their duty to their brethren.

A few days prior to the utterance of the above an article in the New York Telegram on the subject of charity organizations. Following is the substance of that article:

It is a well-known fact that a bowl of weak tea. This was the extent of nourishment secured by a reporter, who, for the practical test of the various charity organizations of New York who are without food or shelter do not fare better, the situation is a deplorable one. It is a well-known fact that a bowl of weak tea. This was the extent of nourishment secured by a reporter, who, for the practical test of the various charity organizations of New York who are without food or shelter do not fare better, the situation is a deplorable one.

At the corner of Ninth street and Fifth avenue, in commodious quarters, the Charity Organization society has its headquarters. At the side door, on the street, a porter and a woman were sitting. I entered and was led into the presence of a young lady whose conduct on my "examination" was so good that I was allowed to take a bowl of weak tea. I was informed that I was to be taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

I found his reception room crowded. I received in a matter of fact way, and when I had been taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

"Go down stairs and get some dinner," I was instructed. I went down stairs and got some dinner. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

At a table snug against the wall I found several hungry eyes like myself. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

I identified myself and followed it out to Fifth avenue. At 9 East Fifty-ninth street I found one of the spokesmen of the Charity Organization society. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

I was told that there was a mission at 188 East Forty-second street. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

In at the Drovers mission, 105 Bowers. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

He had not been able to secure any steady work. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

Among the places visited during the night, I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

Free Trade in Labor. Hundreds of able-bodied young Canadians cross the line every spring. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

When spring comes the farmers along the Niagara river want hired help. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

When fall comes they have worked six or eight months. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

At the corner of Ninth street and Fifth avenue, in commodious quarters, the Charity Organization society has its headquarters. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

I found his reception room crowded. I received in a matter of fact way, and when I had been taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

"Go down stairs and get some dinner," I was instructed. I went down stairs and got some dinner. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

At a table snug against the wall I found several hungry eyes like myself. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

I identified myself and followed it out to Fifth avenue. At 9 East Fifty-ninth street I found one of the spokesmen of the Charity Organization society. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

I was told that there was a mission at 188 East Forty-second street. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

The Juggler's Trick. But here, too, I found the demand had exceeded the supply. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

Among the places visited during the night, I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

Free Trade in Labor. Hundreds of able-bodied young Canadians cross the line every spring. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

When spring comes the farmers along the Niagara river want hired help. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

When fall comes they have worked six or eight months. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

At the corner of Ninth street and Fifth avenue, in commodious quarters, the Charity Organization society has its headquarters. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

I found his reception room crowded. I received in a matter of fact way, and when I had been taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

"Go down stairs and get some dinner," I was instructed. I went down stairs and got some dinner. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

At a table snug against the wall I found several hungry eyes like myself. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

I identified myself and followed it out to Fifth avenue. At 9 East Fifty-ninth street I found one of the spokesmen of the Charity Organization society. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

I was told that there was a mission at 188 East Forty-second street. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

THE FAIR HOUSE. At Grand Rapids, Pleasant Tasting Place, I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

Among the places visited during the night, I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

Free Trade in Labor. Hundreds of able-bodied young Canadians cross the line every spring. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

When spring comes the farmers along the Niagara river want hired help. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

When fall comes they have worked six or eight months. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

At the corner of Ninth street and Fifth avenue, in commodious quarters, the Charity Organization society has its headquarters. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

I found his reception room crowded. I received in a matter of fact way, and when I had been taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

"Go down stairs and get some dinner," I was instructed. I went down stairs and got some dinner. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

At a table snug against the wall I found several hungry eyes like myself. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

I identified myself and followed it out to Fifth avenue. At 9 East Fifty-ninth street I found one of the spokesmen of the Charity Organization society. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

I was told that there was a mission at 188 East Forty-second street. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

THE FAIR HOUSE. At Grand Rapids, Pleasant Tasting Place, I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

Among the places visited during the night, I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

Free Trade in Labor. Hundreds of able-bodied young Canadians cross the line every spring. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

When spring comes the farmers along the Niagara river want hired help. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

When fall comes they have worked six or eight months. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

At the corner of Ninth street and Fifth avenue, in commodious quarters, the Charity Organization society has its headquarters. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

I found his reception room crowded. I received in a matter of fact way, and when I had been taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

"Go down stairs and get some dinner," I was instructed. I went down stairs and got some dinner. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

At a table snug against the wall I found several hungry eyes like myself. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

I identified myself and followed it out to Fifth avenue. At 9 East Fifty-ninth street I found one of the spokesmen of the Charity Organization society. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

I was told that there was a mission at 188 East Forty-second street. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

The Boston Store.

3 DAYS

Commencing Monday Morning, Special Sale.

We have closed out the surplus stock of an importer of Scotch Zephyr Gingham.

The styles are elegant, the quality first-class. They are well-known goods and retail all over the country at 50c per yard. We offer the purchase complete at 17 cents per yard.

Compte Styles will close rapidly; be early to secure choice patterns.

Millinery.

(FOR THE NEXT THREE DAYS) We have a lot of trimmed hats that we desire to close out immediately.

On Monday morning we shall mark this lot at such sweepingly low prices as shall see out every piece promptly. Ladies should attend this Millinery Sale as early as possible.

Boys' Shoes

We have a large stock of Boys' Shoes on hand and to reduce this large surplus will offer our entire stock at reduced prices for three days.

In Wash Goods

We shall offer a beautiful line of Cotton Crepons in light and dark grounds. These are being sold all round at 25c per yard. We offer the purchase entire at 12 1/2 cts per yard.

Linens

We offer a large accumulation of Table Linen Remnants at prices to close them out at once.

Laces

We have received a very large shipment of Laces of a mixed character. We consider them extraordinary value and shall offer them at low prices for the next three days.

NOTE

These lots are very large, but ladies should be as prompt as possible in order to secure a good choice of the best styles.

Everything Strictly as Represented.

TRANCA, JAMESON & CO.,

THE BOSTON STORE.

HAVE YOU SEEN IT?

WE HAVE IT!

The Vexed

Oil Question Finally Solved!

A Vapor Stove that is simple, perfect and ABSOLUTELY SAFE. No complications, nothing to rust, clog or get out of repair. Warranted to successfully vaporize and burn any combustible oil, whether gasoline, naphtha, kerosene or any mixture thereof, with most perfect and satisfactory results. Here it is,

THE UNIVERSAL OIL GAS STOVE.

Agents for the Douglas's Instantaneous Water Heater.

Wholesale and Retail Dealers in PLUMBING SUPPLIES.

Telephone 147. 184 East Fulton Street, Head of Monroe Street.

Every Stove Fully Warranted. Call and See It.

THE GUNN HARDWARE CO.,

47 and 48 Monroe Street.

We Are Prepared

To please with as Nice a Line of Goods as was ever shown in Grand Rapids. Our WALL PAPERS are all new and of the best quality. Fresco Painting

We are leaders in House Decorating.

We do work promptly and at Satisfactory Prices.

House Decorating

Window Shades MILLER & MIDDLETON,

Window Shades

Window Shades

Window Shades

House Decorating

THE FAIR HOUSE. At Grand Rapids, Pleasant Tasting Place, I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

Among the places visited during the night, I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

Free Trade in Labor. Hundreds of able-bodied young Canadians cross the line every spring. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

When spring comes the farmers along the Niagara river want hired help. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

When fall comes they have worked six or eight months. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

At the corner of Ninth street and Fifth avenue, in commodious quarters, the Charity Organization society has its headquarters. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

I found his reception room crowded. I received in a matter of fact way, and when I had been taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

"Go down stairs and get some dinner," I was instructed. I went down stairs and got some dinner. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

At a table snug against the wall I found several hungry eyes like myself. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

I identified myself and followed it out to Fifth avenue. At 9 East Fifty-ninth street I found one of the spokesmen of the Charity Organization society. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

I was told that there was a mission at 188 East Forty-second street. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night. I was taken care of for the night.

ON THE GREEN TURF.

NO WONDER OUR CONGRESSMEN CAN'T RESIST.

Continued Growth in the Interest... The race is held in the neighborhood of Belmont...

Interest of turf sports is steadily increasing in every State of the Union... The race is held in the neighborhood of Belmont...

Rich and poor alike are affected with the racing fever. Thousands now daily attend the races where a decade ago there were but hundreds...

The newspapers are alert to report the "work" of the probable contestants... The race is held in the neighborhood of Belmont...

The handicapper is comprised of the best race horses. Some of them pack heavy weights and go a distance. Others possess speed, but are not good weight carriers...

But the handicapper as a general thing does not follow out theoretical notions... The race is held in the neighborhood of Belmont...

Besides it is the fondest hope of every turfman to have his name go down in the annals of the turf as the victor of such a classic event...

Victor is a strong incentive in itself. Yet fame and money go well together. The average quality of the handicapper...

They are commonly a very able class of men. Their profession is an arduous one, and their responsibility great...

In the whole history of the American turf, there is not a single one known to betray his trust...

When the Hoosiers played out at Kansas City... The race is held in the neighborhood of Belmont...

To speak of a person acting in a "gingery" fashion would certainly convey a word in some vague manner...

A CRACK SHOT.

Frank Clark, a Pine Brook, N. Y. Sportsman With a Record.

Our illustration this week is that of a man well known as a crack shot at the traps and in the field whenever a gun is fired...

FRANK CLARK.

ately fond of field shooting, living as he does in a section of country well fitted for it...

Austin Gibbons is perfectly willing to fight Stanton Abbott of London, England, and has signed the articles...

There were some lively bouts at Miner's Bovey theater recently, the event of the evening being the knockout of Tom Jones by George Dixon...

The Olympic club of New Orleans is run by a wide-awake lot of people, who instead of wasting their time coaxing Hall to fight Fitzsimmons...

One of the most famous lady champion swimmers in London, England, is Miss Finney, a sister of Prof. Finney...

May 30—Passaic River Amateur Rowing association annual regatta, New York.

May 30—Larchmont Yacht club special race, Long Island sound.

June 1—Schuylkill navy annual regatta, Philadelphia.

June 4—Larchmont Yacht club spring regatta, Long Island sound.

June 11—Marine and Field club annual regatta, New York bay.

One of the most famous lady champion swimmers in London, England, is Miss Finney, a sister of Prof. Finney...

John G. Clarkson, one of the pitchers of the Boston club, says that Timothy Ladd is dead in his grave...

Morgan Murphy of the Cincinnati club recently said: "Comiskey works hard in every game he plays. He can't let a game go without trying to win it."

Recovering Hydrogen. It has been found that by passing mixed hydrogen and carbonic oxide over nickel and cobalt they can be separated...

Several attempts have been made from time to time to develop balloon photography, and special cameras have been devised for the purpose.

IN A QUICKSAND.

AN ELEPHANT SWALLOWED WHOLE BY TREACHEROUS MUDD.

The Unwilling Sagacity of the Doomed Creature—Calm in the Midst of Danger, the Intrepid Brute Greets Frightening Only at the Very Last.

"Did I ever see an elephant die?" said the keeper, repeating a reporter's question. "Well, I did and I didn't."

"I was bothered with a dropping of mucus in my throat which bothered me very much and impaired my health considerably. I applied to the Montague treatment and after one month's treatment...

"It was in India," said the old keeper, "where I learned a good deal about elephants, never thinking that it would be so useful to me here."

"I was attracted to the scene by the shouts of his crowd. Five Indian elephants, whose wares he carried from one bazaar to another. They did not know the quicksand and could not understand why their elephant did not come out of the stream which he had almost crossed."

"His master procured a small boat and pulled it out to him. Then they took hold of his trunk and threw him in the boat and brought them ashore. This hindered his weight a good deal, but the elephant was by that time up above his head and his trunk was entirely back and covered by the water."

"Collecting some floating boards which had been thrown out to him, he made a sort of raft of them with his trunk and legs and got out of the water."

"As the water covered his eyes and nose he groped his way along and at last, after a long search, he found a log which he lifted his trunk and curled it back over his forehead. The water filled his ears and he barked then vigorously for a time. Soon he reached his eyes and nose, and the burning eyes, just at the water's edge, took on a pitiable expression."

"The old fellow looked as sad and accor from those he had served so long and so faithfully, and his masters fairly groined in the dust as they yelied to their feet and looked at the monster with a kind of Indian way of expressing sorrow."

"As the water covered his eyes and nose he groped his way along and at last, after a long search, he found a log which he lifted his trunk and curled it back over his forehead. The water filled his ears and he barked then vigorously for a time. Soon he reached his eyes and nose, and the burning eyes, just at the water's edge, took on a pitiable expression."

"The old fellow looked as sad and accor from those he had served so long and so faithfully, and his masters fairly groined in the dust as they yelied to their feet and looked at the monster with a kind of Indian way of expressing sorrow."

"The old fellow looked as sad and accor from those he had served so long and so faithfully, and his masters fairly groined in the dust as they yelied to their feet and looked at the monster with a kind of Indian way of expressing sorrow."

"The old fellow looked as sad and accor from those he had served so long and so faithfully, and his masters fairly groined in the dust as they yelied to their feet and looked at the monster with a kind of Indian way of expressing sorrow."

"The old fellow looked as sad and accor from those he had served so long and so faithfully, and his masters fairly groined in the dust as they yelied to their feet and looked at the monster with a kind of Indian way of expressing sorrow."

"The old fellow looked as sad and accor from those he had served so long and so faithfully, and his masters fairly groined in the dust as they yelied to their feet and looked at the monster with a kind of Indian way of expressing sorrow."

"The old fellow looked as sad and accor from those he had served so long and so faithfully, and his masters fairly groined in the dust as they yelied to their feet and looked at the monster with a kind of Indian way of expressing sorrow."

THE DEAF HEAL.

Wonderful Cures Made by the Montague Treatment.

Mr. J. W. Thompson, room 20, Powers' opera house block, began treatment April 25, at that time he could not hear the tick of a watch placed against his ear; after three weeks' treatment he can hear distinctly at six inches and is still improving. He also had a bad case of chronic catarrhal eye, which rapidly disappeared under the Montague treatment.

"I was bothered with a dropping of mucus in my throat which bothered me very much and impaired my health considerably. I applied to the Montague treatment and after one month's treatment...

"I was attracted to the scene by the shouts of his crowd. Five Indian elephants, whose wares he carried from one bazaar to another. They did not know the quicksand and could not understand why their elephant did not come out of the stream which he had almost crossed."

"His master procured a small boat and pulled it out to him. Then they took hold of his trunk and threw him in the boat and brought them ashore. This hindered his weight a good deal, but the elephant was by that time up above his head and his trunk was entirely back and covered by the water."

"Collecting some floating boards which had been thrown out to him, he made a sort of raft of them with his trunk and legs and got out of the water."

"As the water covered his eyes and nose he groped his way along and at last, after a long search, he found a log which he lifted his trunk and curled it back over his forehead. The water filled his ears and he barked then vigorously for a time. Soon he reached his eyes and nose, and the burning eyes, just at the water's edge, took on a pitiable expression."

"The old fellow looked as sad and accor from those he had served so long and so faithfully, and his masters fairly groined in the dust as they yelied to their feet and looked at the monster with a kind of Indian way of expressing sorrow."

"The old fellow looked as sad and accor from those he had served so long and so faithfully, and his masters fairly groined in the dust as they yelied to their feet and looked at the monster with a kind of Indian way of expressing sorrow."

"The old fellow looked as sad and accor from those he had served so long and so faithfully, and his masters fairly groined in the dust as they yelied to their feet and looked at the monster with a kind of Indian way of expressing sorrow."

"The old fellow looked as sad and accor from those he had served so long and so faithfully, and his masters fairly groined in the dust as they yelied to their feet and looked at the monster with a kind of Indian way of expressing sorrow."

"The old fellow looked as sad and accor from those he had served so long and so faithfully, and his masters fairly groined in the dust as they yelied to their feet and looked at the monster with a kind of Indian way of expressing sorrow."

"The old fellow looked as sad and accor from those he had served so long and so faithfully, and his masters fairly groined in the dust as they yelied to their feet and looked at the monster with a kind of Indian way of expressing sorrow."

"The old fellow looked as sad and accor from those he had served so long and so faithfully, and his masters fairly groined in the dust as they yelied to their feet and looked at the monster with a kind of Indian way of expressing sorrow."

"The old fellow looked as sad and accor from those he had served so long and so faithfully, and his masters fairly groined in the dust as they yelied to their feet and looked at the monster with a kind of Indian way of expressing sorrow."

"The old fellow looked as sad and accor from those he had served so long and so faithfully, and his masters fairly groined in the dust as they yelied to their feet and looked at the monster with a kind of Indian way of expressing sorrow."

"The old fellow looked as sad and accor from those he had served so long and so faithfully, and his masters fairly groined in the dust as they yelied to their feet and looked at the monster with a kind of Indian way of expressing sorrow."

THE COMING AUGUST RACES.

The entries are all in for one of the most successful horse meetings ever held in Grand Rapids. Some noted speeders are on the list and it takes considerable business management to arrange and carry out such a meeting.

If you have not made an ENTRY, do so at once and enter it upon your memory that we are foremost in all the latest designs of WALL PAPERS ever shown to a racing public. It is a race between us and our customers to see which will be the best satisfied. Certain it is all who look at our stock are happy.

We are 2:10 in the race.

Harvey & Heystek,

75 and 77 Monroe, 74 Ottawa, 8 Fountain.

Nice, New, Clean

Quarters

At Our New Store,

52 Canal Street.

Watch for Our Leaders in a Few Days.

The Van Every Co.,

Opposite the Old Store at No. 52.

BICYCLES

WE SELL WE BUY WE RENT WE REPAIR

We ask you to call and learn to ride a wheel.

No Charge.

PERKINS & RICHMOND,

13 Fountain Street

HAVE YOU

Seen?

BOSS & NORTON,

27 South Division Street.

Shoe Sale!

A Great Treat to the Ladies of Grand Rapids and vicinity. Commencing Monday Morning May 9 and ending Friday Evening, May 13, lasting 5 days we shall sell Ladies' Fine shoes at a great reduction.

Ladies' first-class French Kid button, reduced from $5 to $4.25.

Ladies' fine Hand Sewed, $3.50, $2.75.

Ladies' $4 Shoe for $3.

Ladies' $2.50 Shoe for $2.

Ladies' $2 Shoe for $1.50.

Ladies' $1.50 Shoe for $1.25.

Ladies' and Misses' Oxfords in great variety.

Our field is Elevatorium, Catarah, Neuralgia, LaGrippe, Nervousness and all chronic and male and female diseases.

It Serves You Right!

You ought to suffer if you will be humbugged by quacks, take their worthless nostrums, be robbed of your money, have your system ruined and constitution broken down, when by a little good advice and a thorough course of Electro-Bio Treatment administered by the Electrical and Medical Sanitarium you can be made as good as new.

OFFICIAL RAILWAY TIME CARDS. GRAND RAPIDS & INDIA.

Table with columns for Train Name, Direction, and Time. Includes Grand Rapids to Chicago and Chicago to Grand Rapids.

Table with columns for Train Name, Direction, and Time. Includes Grand Rapids to Detroit and Detroit to Grand Rapids.

Table with columns for Train Name, Direction, and Time. Includes Grand Rapids to Lansing and Lansing to Grand Rapids.

Table with columns for Train Name, Direction, and Time. Includes Grand Rapids to Muskegon and Muskegon to Grand Rapids.

Table with columns for Train Name, Direction, and Time. Includes Grand Rapids to Chicago via Detroit.

Table with columns for Train Name, Direction, and Time. Includes Grand Rapids to Chicago via Detroit.

Table with columns for Train Name, Direction, and Time. Includes Grand Rapids to Chicago via Detroit.

Table with columns for Train Name, Direction, and Time. Includes Grand Rapids to Chicago via Detroit.

Table with columns for Train Name, Direction, and Time. Includes Grand Rapids to Chicago via Detroit.

Table with columns for Train Name, Direction, and Time. Includes Grand Rapids to Chicago via Detroit.

Table with columns for Train Name, Direction, and Time. Includes Grand Rapids to Chicago via Detroit.

Table with columns for Train Name, Direction, and Time. Includes Grand Rapids to Chicago via Detroit.

Table with columns for Train Name, Direction, and Time. Includes Grand Rapids to Chicago via Detroit.

Table with columns for Train Name, Direction, and Time. Includes Grand Rapids to Chicago via Detroit.

Table with columns for Train Name, Direction, and Time. Includes Grand Rapids to Chicago via Detroit.

Table with columns for Train Name, Direction, and Time. Includes Grand Rapids to Chicago via Detroit.

Table with columns for Train Name, Direction, and Time. Includes Grand Rapids to Chicago via Detroit.

Table with columns for Train Name, Direction, and Time. Includes Grand Rapids to Chicago via Detroit.

Table with columns for Train Name, Direction, and Time. Includes Grand Rapids to Chicago via Detroit.

