Nearly a hundred men were killed or missing. A frightful accident on the Licking River near Cincinnati...

CINCINNATI, June 15.—A terrible disaster, which caused the death of eighty-eight men, occurred at the Licking river bridge which is being constructed over the Licking River...

The bridge was being built by the Kenton and Campbell County Bridge company and was about one-third completed for about a month. Yesterday the laying of the iron floor was begun...

The force of men employed by the bridge company on the site numbered over one hundred, most of whom lived at Covington and Newport, and there was a stampede of citizens to the scene of the disaster.

At Strose, St. Johns, Laeante and Oklavala valley the damage seems to have been the most severe. Sixteen is a summer resort on the line of the Canadian Pacific...

MARY ARNOLD ESCAPES A TRIP TO ADRIAN. Sentenced to the Reform School She is Allowed to Stay All Night With Her Parents and Return to a Mating in the Morning. A Fair Tale of Scandal.

With the writing of editorials for an evening paper, and looking for other things, County Agent W. M. Hathaway has about all he can do. He is especially busy just now owing to the many tragedy cases and his foolishness in listening to the pleadings of some of his charges.

Monday Mary Arnold was sentenced to the Adrian school for girls until 15 years old. Her mother and father protested and begged for her to be allowed to stay all night with them to stay over night. The judge refused to grant the request saying he had no power to do so as the commitment had been made and she was in the hands of the county.

THE TARIFF IS A TAX.

In the Minneapolis convention the Republicans declared as follows: "We believe that all articles which cannot be produced in the United States, except luxuries, should be admitted free of duty."

Suppose an article cannot be produced in this country, why should it be admitted free, if the foreign producer pays the tax and we are receiving revenue?

The exception of luxuries from the list of articles not produced in this country, that should be taxed, shows that the Republicans believe that the consumer in the United States pays the tax and as luxuries are consumed by the rich they propose to get taxes out of the rich for the support of the government by the imposition of duties on luxuries.

But if it is true that the tariff is not a tax, these duties on luxuries should not come out of the rich consumers here but would be paid by the foreigners and that being the case articles not luxuries should be taxed as well as luxuries.

The whole position quoted is a clear denial of the favorite theory of the protectionists that the tariff is not a tax. The policy thus expressed proceeds upon the theory that the tariff is a tax. And that is true.

The tariff is a tax and should be laid for the two purposes of revenue and protection of labor. The pretense that it is not a tax is a fraud. Where an article can be produced in this country as cheaply as in any other country, if natural competition is allowed to have its way, the tariff is not a tax. But where combines are made to keep the price of the article up to the level of the cost in this country with the tariff duty added, save a small margin for underselling the foreign product, the tariff is a tax on the consumer for the sole benefit of the manufacturer. It is not a tax for public revenue but for private robbery.

PENSIONERS AT THE HOME. From all we can learn it is a fact as stated by Quartermaster Shank that some fifty of the pensioners at the home do manage to check or mortgage their pension vouchers and checks for whisky to saloonkeepers. The Morning Press did not believe this could be the case, because it is forbidden by law. Mr. Gibson in another place quotes the law showing it to be a misdemeanor punishable by fine and imprisonment.

The law should be enforced and the United States marshal should see to it that it is enforced. It is a violation of the law for a saloonkeeper in this city to sell inmates of the home intoxicating liquors. This also should be looked to by the sheriff.

These soldiers who had their money in saloons and with led women, should be put upon their own resources or subjected to rules such as the board of managers has established, but the law should be made to authorize such rules.

This Minneapolis convention should be a lesson for all time against instructed delegates. State conventions held months and weeks before the assembling of a national convention, can not anticipate the circumstances that may attend the date of the national convention. If delegates had not been instructed for Harrison, Blaine or McKinley would have been the nominee, and that either would have been stronger than Harrison is already pretty soon. The folly of instructing delegates may cost the Republican party its life.

There doesn't seem to be as much interest taken in the Chicago convention as there was in its predecessor at Minneapolis. There is nothing like a fight for setting up an excitement. It was this prospect that aroused such general interest last week. The overwhelming Cleveland air promised for next week is too peaceful. Is General Apaty going to command both the Democrats and Democratic forces in this campaign?

GOVERNOR HILL should take warning from Alger and not let his modest lead him into the error of remaining away from the convention upon the supposition that he is a candidate. He will not be nominated himself, but if on the ground he might have a decisive influence by his preference at the right time.

OWN term for a president is the best civil service reform measure that can be devised.

AT JOHNSON'S RESORT. A New and Instructive Entertainment at the Reed's Lake Musee.

It is a fact for union men to ponder that "Outlaw" Reid was the choice for vice president of Chaucey Dewey, who is the president of the New York Central railroad, a corporation that refuses employment to Knights of Labor and that employed Pinkerton men to shoot down strikers at Albany.

With the incoming of Harrison as the prope of Dewey and the monopolists there is no farther talk about restoring unearned land grants to the public domain for actual settlers. When Cleveland stands upon that policy they let the only friend it has had in the White House side the war.

Mr. Dewey at Minneapolis, pleading for Harrison, stood for the monopolies and the millionaires more than for the Republican party. Before being a Republican Mr. Dewey is a Vanderbilt man.

PRICES PULVERIZED! An Appalling Holocaust! A Wreckage of Values Without a Peer or Parallel in the Commercial Annals of Michigan!

Realizing that the hour has come when "Heroic Treatment" is necessary to reduce to something like normal proportions the hills of Stylish Suits under which their counters creak and groan, THE GIANT CLOTHING CO. have at one fell swoop cut the very life out of prices, ground profits into powder, and shall, for the next six days, scatter bargains broadcast with a princely hand.

WE OFFER THE FINEST CHOICE of sixteen hundred suits (Suits and Ties) that up to the closing hour last Saturday night sold at $16, $15, $14, $13.50 and $12

For Only TEN DOLLARS! Homespun, Chevits, Broken Checks, Hair Lines, Tweeds, Worsteds, Cassimeres.

These peerless value suits are on exhibition in our large show window, where they have been for the past week MARKED AT THE ORIGINAL PRICES. We have simply taken the painted price cards off, replacing them with the talismanic sign $10, which will make them move, or we don't know the people of Grand Rapids. Why, $10 would not in many instances cover the cost of cloth and trimmings, yet the choice of all goes at this price for the ensuing six days.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC. Dear Reader: If you have been hounded at any time by any similar offer, do us a favor and do not compare this offer to those of unscrupulous advertisers. Our word is our bond; we mean what we mean. Come and help yourself to our suits, worth $16, $15, $14, $13.50 and $12, for $10, this week.

THE PEOPLE'S COLUMN.

The Soldiers' Home Trouble. Editor Morning Press—Since it is well known that I was discharged from the ranks of the Soldiers' Home...

Soon after this I was summoned to appear before that honorable body to stand and deliver. General Rutherford leading the advance, I was asked how much pension I drew, and if I was willing to remain in the Home and abide by its rules?

Allow me to add, Mr. Editor, that I have never received distributions or do not. On the contrary, during my over three years' residence in the Home, I have been expending in my denunciations of these rules in season and out of season...

The improvements are completed, or nearly so. The Michigan Soldiers' Home is now open for the summer business. The first Sunday train will leave at 10 a. m. and leave the Beach for home at 6:30 p. m.

At that point the big gas opened on a full blast. The Michigan Soldiers' Home is now open for the summer business. The first Sunday train will leave at 10 a. m. and leave the Beach for home at 6:30 p. m.

The next day at 11 a. m. the injunction was served on them and the old order was restored. This is under the pleasure to know there would be no use for the bank book to be so much worried.

Now Mr. Editor, this is straight goods, I ask no sympathy from anyone further than my friends, but let them read the pension rules and compare them with the pension the board then offered and see how low the pension is.

First, let us read the U. S. statute on that subject: Sec. 2, of act approved Feb. 28, 1883, reads as follows: "Any pledge, mortgage, or other lien, assignment, or other security right, claim or interest in any pension which has been, or may hereafter be granted, shall be void and of no effect, and any person who shall pledge, or receive as pledge, mortgage, sale, assignment or transfer of any pension which has been, or may hereafter be granted, or interest in any pension certificate, or who shall hold any same as collateral security for any debt, or promise, or upon any pretext of such security or promise, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be fined a sum not exceeding $100 and the costs of the prosecution."

Of course it would seem that having this dear law right before them, the pension certificate no man would dare violate it; but men who violate or evade law nearly every day of their lives have little difficulty in evading this one, and have no fear of its violation by their eyes, and do not care for this way. The certificate and voucher for the next quarter are left in the care of the pension keeper or money clerk; the pensioner has his voucher copies in that person's care and must go to get his check when it falls due, and then his creditor sees it that he signs it over to him. The law makes it a misdemeanor to sign or receive a pension certificate so that the debtor and creditor are sure to be satisfied, and a pensioner could not prove that the money lender had the certificate as security so these violations of law go unpunished.
