

Striking Switchmen Destroy Much Property.

Violence, Arson and Threats of Bloodshed Are Reported To.

BUFFALO, Aug. 15.—Anarchy reigns in the Lehigh yards here. At 2 o'clock yesterday morning 10 coal cars were turned loose on the tracks. They rushed down and demolished the water tank and an engine. Then fire was applied by incendiaries in various parts of the yards. The spots had been carefully selected and little water could be reached. Twenty freight cars piled up in a row and other merchandise was burned before the firemen could stop the flames. Two passenger cars also burned.

At Daylight Sunday morning, strikers or their sympathizers, with pitchforks, turn switches and assault the "scab" workmen. Three men were taken to the hospital badly hurt. One was assaulted at 11 o'clock and another at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The man who was assaulted at the Western & Pennsylvania crossing was on his way to the wreck. The strikers had turned switches and thrown down his train. The man who was struck on the head and when he was taken to the hospital he was comatose and died before he could be buried.

BECOMING DEFEATIST. The Strikers Filling Up With Bad Whiskey and Growing Ugly.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 15.—Bloodshed is in every way being avoided here. The strikers are working themselves up to a pitch of desperation, which will not be satisfied with the mere destruction of railroad property.

Human lives will not be allowed to slip in their way. In the Lehigh yards here have been pouring down beer and whiskey in the saloons around the Lehigh yards and are becoming more violent hourly. They have a vicious look and their actions are by no means limited to the Lehigh yards. They are every stranger with surly looks and nothing but profanity and insults are given in reply to civil questions.

Each passenger train that comes in is boarded and every man who has the appearance of a railroad laborer is obliged to give an account of himself. The very appearance of the strikers is enough to terrify the timid passengers. Their faces are bloated and unsharpened and their eyes have a vicious gleam.

One of them said this afternoon: "There won't be any big trouble today, but look out for fun tonight. If they set their Pennsylvania Dutchmen to work they will get every man in the yard just as sure as they come into the yards."

The striking switchmen today followed up their acts of lawlessness last night by further destruction of the property of the companies. The Lehigh and city cars are reported to have been set on fire on the tracks outside the city yards between 10 and 11 o'clock Sunday morning and are now burning fiercely. The purpose of this is to burn up the coal block tracks so that trains cannot be sent through.

Frank Beck has made a call for men to come to his office and be sworn in as deputies. Superintendent of Police Raymond J. O'Connell has already been sworn in at least 150 citizens as "specials."

There are fifty freight cars now ablaze between Lancaster and Chertokawa and nothing can be done to have them looked after. The Lehigh yards are being burned outside the city limits. The fire department cannot get there and it is only a matter of time before the engines will remain inside the city and run out long lines of hose for the railroad men to handle, but that was found to be impracticable after water had been turned on a few cars which were the first to be burned. About 1,500 cars between Buffalo and Lancaster and unless something is done to stop the progress of the fire, the Lehigh yards will be completely destroyed. So far the absence of lightning has prevented rapid spread of the fire. It has been stated that should a heavy wind storm spring up the fire would spread in all directions in the rapidly packed yards.

The Lehigh and Erie yards at East Buffalo presented a sorry look at 11 o'clock this morning and showed the effects of the fire and rioting since Sunday night. A crowd of 150 cars had already been burned. All along through the Lehigh yards beyond William street the blackened and charred tracks were seen lying on the side tracks, as in most cases the body of the cars have been completely burned down. Occasionally a car is seen with the roof burned out or a part of the side charred and splintered.

AN OATH BOUND BAND A New and Strong Political Organization.

The Gideon's Band Formed to Defeat Both of the Old Parties.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—"Gideon's Band" is the newest factor in this year's campaign. It proposes to smite the heathen of the old parties with the biblical method of the sword. This development of the Alliance politics, is a remarkable one. Every detail can be taken as absolutely correct, and the Alliance leaders will be slow to deny the existence of a band of men who are meeting in parts. Congressman Livingston of Georgia, National Lecturer Willetts, Ben Terrell of Texas, and Jerry Simpson can enlighten the public if they will. Maybe Chaiken Taboensack has heard them.

Time and again it has been charged by the politicians of the two old parties that the order of the National Alliance and industrial union was being manipulated by certain of the leaders, for their personal aggrandizement and preferment, but not until a few days ago were these complaints and charges verified, and the motor, the wheel within the Alliance wheel is a preferred oath-bound society, to the few known as the "Band of Gideon," which was organized by Dr. Macneil last year ago. It was officially acted at that meeting and embraces in its membership all, or nearly all, of the Alliance leaders. Its object is to strike the two old political parties wherever they may be located, and the plan of the new society as laid down by Macneil, its originator, is a simple one, but the results expected were to be widespread. It contemplates the raising of a political legion of 500,000 men, in each congressional district in the Union.

AT HOMESTRAD. The Strikers Meet With a Disappointment.

HOMESTRAD, Pa., Aug. 15.—There was no break this morning in the rank of the non-union men employed by the Carnegie steel works. The strikers had been led to believe that as soon as the gates of Fort Erie were opened this morning from 400 to 600 non-unionists would come out. Fully 800 strikers were on the picket line and a great many of them were employed who went to Pittsburgh Saturday night in order to spend Sunday at home. SEIZED WITH CRAMPS. George Jacobose Loses His Life at the Lake.

George Jacobose, employed at a West End drug store was drowned Sunday evening off Manhattan Beach. The history of the drawing is quite a sad one. It seems he rode out to the lake on a Wednesday night and was seized with his blood to cold, plunged into the water and the last seen of him was about 20 feet away from the shore. He was swimming along all right and nothing further was thought of him until Sunday evening, when he failed to report for work. His wife was seldom late and becoming alarmed his brother went out to the lake, but was unable to obtain a clue to his whereabouts.

Yesterday morning the brother rode out to the lake again and found his brother's bicycle leaning against the bath house and upon opening the door nearest the wheel, the young man's clothes were found hanging on the pegs apparently as he had left them.

A search of the lake was made for some extent but himself on record. It is said that Lord Rosebery considers the British government virtually pledged to the construction of the railroad, in compliance with the language and spirit of the general policy of the same campaign. The point of difference between the two is said to be the evacuation of Egypt, and it is also said that the difference did not originate since the assurance of Conservative defeat, but that Lord Rosebery and Lord Salisbury had discussed the subject at Dalmeny park with a result unsatisfactory to both.

Lord Rosebery considers the retention of Egypt indispensable to the security of Great Britain's possessions in the East Indies and the Far East. He is said to be strongly in favor of the proposed railroad to the Victoria Nyamasa, a project which Mr. Gladstone has not only refused to support but has endeavored to strengthen that to weaken the British hold upon that country. EVACUATION OF EGYPT. Differences Between Gladstone and Lord Rosebery.

The great subject of discussion connected with the reported difference between Mr. Gladstone and Lord Rosebery. There is no certainty yet that Lord Rosebery will outlast the cabinet. It is certain that if he is not put in charge of foreign affairs, the Liberal cause will be greatly weakened. The Tories are ardently hoping that there is a breach, as reported, between Mr. Gladstone and the man who has been one of his closest friends, and who was assisting him in his conduct of the campaign. The point of difference between the two is said to be the evacuation of Egypt, and it is also said that the difference did not originate since the assurance of Conservative defeat, but that Lord Rosebery and Lord Salisbury had discussed the subject at Dalmeny park with a result unsatisfactory to both.

Unexpected Difficulty Encountered in Making Up the Cabinet.

LONDON, Aug. 15.—At noon today Mr. Gladstone started for Osborne. His departure was quiet. He succeeded in eluding a group of admirers who had gathered at Waterloo station and entered unobserved the royal saloon car that was to convey him to the presence of her majesty.

WARR'S OPPENHEIMER He Has Not Been Seen for Many Days.

The friends of Frederick Oppenheimer, who until yesterday was the proprietor of a meat market at the corner of Jefferson street and Shawmut avenue, are considered by him to be in a condition of suspense. It seems that his market has not been a very profitable institution for some time. His patrons complained that he kept an inferior stock, and gradually the large trade which the market enjoyed until he had been in business hardly paid expenses.

A week ago Sunday Oppenheimer was on duty as usual, but it is claimed he has not been seen since. His brother, who is a school teacher, took charge when he learned the condition of affairs and did the best he could with the help of the clerk to carry the business along in hopes that his brother would return in a few days.

There was nothing said of his disappearance until Saturday, when the market commenced to leak out, and Saturday night when the hour for closing arrived there was nothing in the market but a few scraps of meat. It is said that his creditors secured a check mortgage on all that was left.
