

REFERRED FOR TRANSMISSION BY MAIL AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER. PUBLISHED DAILY BY THE PRESS PUBLISHING COMPANY AT 100 N. W. COR. OF PEARL ST. TELEPHONE NUMBER 60.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1899.

STAY AT HOME. There are strong indications that a large portion of the voters in this state stayed at home election day. The official count in Ottawa county shows a total vote of a little over 7,000. In 1898 when it was supposed a full vote was out Ottawa county polled 7,818 votes. This it appears that about 800 votes shown in that county four years ago do not appear this year.

Public Speaking. This everlasting demand on public men for speeches on every possible occasion that affords an excuse for oratory is a source of labor and embarrassment to most every man subject to it and is in fact a great drain on the men of strongest sense.

THE ELECTION GAMBLERS. The final test of who is elected to congress will come in the house of representatives. If there is a contest, as there surely will be in case McKinley gets the certificate, and bets on McKinley and Richardson will have to be decided by the final action of the house.

NO COMMISSION POSSIBLE. It is not likely the Republican senate and President Harrison will accommodate the Democrats with a commission for revising the tariff, to be appointed by President Cleveland in the interest of the Democrats.

THE UNION BOARD OF HIGH SCHOOLS IN CINCINNATI has passed a resolution providing for the teaching of military tactics in the high schools. The thousand or more male pupils will be organized into companies and two regiments, and drilled by a skilled officer.

THE NEW ELECTION LAUNCH OF JOHN J. ASTOR, now in operation on the Hudson, is propelled exclusively by storage batteries, and it is good for a trip of 20 to 30 miles, at a rate of nearly 11 miles an hour. There is said to be only one other such boat in the country; but it seems likely enough that within a few years there may be many.

THE MILLIONAIRE FROM MASTERS OF PENNSYLVANIA have heretofore found it cheaper for them to pay money for the Republican campaign fund than to pay higher wages to their workmen. It may be different after this.

THE DEMOCRATS will not hold an extra session. They are preparing to go into the election of 1894 in a month or two after they have put a new tariff in operation just as the Republicans did with the McKinley bill in 1893.

IF NO REVENUE WAS WANTED, would there be a tariff for revenue only? Does any one pretend to say such a law would be constitutional?

THE GREATEST QUESTION of the immediate future, and the one which labors most deeply interested in, is this matter of immigration. The time has come when labor must be protected by a close and unrelenting surveillance of immigrants. Cheap and ignorant immigrants from Europe should be restricted, if not forbidden, the same as the Chinese.

THE REPUBLICANS will ever be susceptible of a campaign run by "General Apasby." They have had enough of him this time. If John Sherman resigns from office the skies may be expected to fall.

THE WORLD FAMOUS GRAPES IN HAMPTON COURT, the largest in England and supposed to be 125 years old, bore nearly 1,800 bunches of ripe grapes this year. The fruit was packed in boxes and sent to the queen.

ONE MAN IN WISCONSIN county, Maryland, on the eastern shore, shipped the past season nearly 20,000 quarts of huckleberries in a single week, and a neighbor of his shipped nearly as many. Smart berry pickers earned $3 a day picking huckleberries.

SEVEN ACRES OF APRICOT ORCHARD IN TULARE COUNTY, California, bringing their owner a return of $2,100, and eight acres of prune orchard in San Bernardino county, yielding 25 tons of fruit, which brought $20 a ton, or more than $150 an acre, are mentioned in the year's early reports upon the California fruit crop.

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER is having a massive oak case, similar to a book case, put into his stable. It has doors of polished oak, with brass hinges and heavy plate glass. The inside will be lined with purple plush, and when completed, the bits which shine in the mouths of his trotters and coach horses will be arranged inside of this magnificent case in rows, ready for use, as well as an appropriate ornament for the stable.

THE UNION BOARD OF HIGH SCHOOLS IN CINCINNATI has passed a resolution providing for the teaching of military tactics in the high schools. The thousand or more male pupils will be organized into companies and two regiments, and drilled by a skilled officer.

CANARIES when fed with Cayenne pepper gradually change their color, passing from yellow to red. Cayenne pepper contains a tinctorial substance, an irritative principle and an oil. When the last two substances are extracted by steeping in alcohol pepper loses its coloring properties, but an addition of olive oil restores it.

WE EXPECT THE FELLOW with plenty of sand to get his desert.—Elmira Gazette.

THEY HEAL ALL THINGS; but does not owe a pair of boots—New Orleans Picayune.

PROHIBITIONISTS are complaining that they did not get out a "full" vote.—Philadelphia Record.

FANCY STAMPED leather cuffs are shown on new gloves.

LONGER GLOVES are to be worn; eight to ten buttons will be the rule for semi-dress for the coming season.

TIME'S CHANGES. Just four-and-thirty years ago, She started in July. But time runs on with flying feet. Now we see her as a sweet, Virginean young coquette.

NO SLEEPERS via D. L. & N. Night trains between Grand Rapids and Detroit, via D. L. & N., will be withdrawn Nov. 29 and sleeping car service discontinued.

DEATH NOTICES

HEALY—At her home, 629 North 10th street, of George, Nov. 17, 1904. Burial from the residence tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

BOLEN

TAZELAR—To Mr. and Mrs. Peter Tazelar of 4 Third avenue—a boy.

CITY AND SUBURBS

Will Mead and Fred Smith were the drunks arrested by the police last night. The police quitted a family misunderstanding last night at a law suit without making any arrest.

Ex-Patrolman Hayes and Fitzpatrick started a horse race yesterday to run a salmon on 25 East Bridge street.

The patrol wagon visited 100 West Broadway yesterday and quitted a family disturbance, and a law suit.

The G. & I. Railway company will erect a small depot at the junction of the Muskogean branch and the main line.

The "Old May" Pedro club organized at the residence of James Trebilcock, Pine street, is the latest social organization.

H. Leppink, to require an election ward will plant a tree in front of his Grandview avenue tonight accompanied by a band of martial music.

C. H. Elliot, an old veteran, was found wandering about the city yesterday by the police and sent to headquarters for safe keeping.

Cases of contagious disease reported yesterday as follows: Otto Fischer, 300 West Fulton street, scarlet fever; Helen M. Allen, 37 South Lafayette street, same.

The Political Equality club yesterday was increasing their membership at the Bridge street. The offer of a free lecture by Prof. W. L. Colville was accepted.

Martha E. Barkley commenced suit in foreclosure yesterday against Ida De Jong to recover $800.00. The suit is on a promissory note secured by a mortgage covering lot 18 of Donham's addition to the city.

THE THEATERS

Society turned out on a mass at the opening of Powers' new opera house last night. The stamp of the mighty dollar was every where present.

The wealth of lace and satin and velvet. It was crusted in the seals and jewelry and embedded in the dazzling brilliancy of the whole. The very air breathed of wealth and appeared as if bristled with gold.

easy clapping of soft gloved hands, the suppressed applause and the general air of languor belonged to the aristocracy.

Even the play itself was evolved for the classes and to the classes. The play was a look for support. The "curtain raiser," which preceded the play proper, should have no place on the public stage.

It would do well to private the article and would probably be acceptable if presented by society assistants.

It only serves in this instance to detract from the succeeding play. Many good things have been said and written of Jack Mason and Marjorie.

The play "If I Were You" and a great deal of what was said and written deserved, from a society point of view, the play and players pamper to the article as a "curtain raiser."

It could not draw from a popular price attraction. The play is a great piece of legitimate comedy, almost too refined.

It is a character study free from extravagant specialties that in many instances appear as effective weapons.

This is the reason perhaps why the two brilliant comedies to such good advantage. The story is the same old one of love, served in a new form.

Doris and Jack Charlton are in love, but the affair is not a simple one.

From the fact that Doris is high spirited and excited her jealousy by too frequent meetings with a meddling widow, but of course all ends well.

Marjorie is the star of the play. Her acting is the acme of perfection. She is never stilted or unnatural, and is always in the art of play.

Her acting is delightfully fresh and clear, and is fitly in the play it is all the more acceptable.

"Tweekham Perry," caused the only disturbance heard in the house, and for the first audience was rather loud.

Mason is a refined actor. He has about him the culture of Boston and the atmosphere of the Museum.

He portrays the emotions of the heart with a finesse that stamps him a genius and the more his work is reflected upon the greater the effect.

Robert McWade is an excellent type of the highland Scotchman and his dialect is well adapted. Edward P. Temple as Sir Timothy Carow could be improved upon. He could not play the character without diminishing its value.

The Duke as portrayed by Julius E. Booth is a character who is the only part in the play that is unnatural, overdrawn, and unnecessary.

Hattie Schell makes a charming little aristocrat and she puts just enough "wink" in the character "Pallopa" to make it fit.

Thought and tomorrow afternoon the play "If I Were You" will be repeated. Tomorrow night a grand performance of "Cats" will be given.

"Mr. Potter of Texas," which appears at the Grand opera house one night only, Sunday, Nov. 20, is a comedy drama, distinctively original and full of literary excellence.

It tells two wholly probable love stories in a pleasing manner. It is times rise to a high degree of dramatic skill in its general grasping of all those comic that haul taint on the best as well as the worst of human nature.

Al. Reeves, the banjoist, is with P. & Hanson's, a drawing card at the Grand it all next week. His fun is all original, his remarkable playing confined to one or two remarkable solos and his contemporaneous song, "Little Bird Whispers," which sends an audience into convulsions.

Notwithstanding that some of the local papers have passed harshly upon "Good Old Times" now current at the Grand it is one of the best dramas that has ever been staged that popular house. The last matinee will be given tomorrow.

The great New York success "Jane" will appear at Powers' Monday night and its initial presentation here will no doubt draw the house.

THE FAMOUS, 46 Canal street.

A HAUNTED HOUSE.

Kalamazoo Excited Over the Spook of a Salt-Cellar.

KALAMAZOO, Mich., Nov. 17.—Kalamazoo people are, to some extent, torn by the reports of a ghost haunting the house on Lincoln avenue. The place is a dilapidated, old-fashioned dwelling which has been in disuse about two years. Several years ago W. H. Clermont and his wife, Laura P. Clermont, whose name is a familiar one among a certain class, purchased the property. They were peculiar people and were seldom approached by the neighbors.

It was discovered that a number of log, coffee-like boxes were sent from the house, and it was soon found that Clermont was a ghost and was furnishing material for the distracting tales in Ann Arbor. Five years ago Clermont shot himself and died. The blood that splattered on the walls at that time still remains. Many abstruse transactions have occurred within the place, and the occult signs were evident.

Three years ago Mrs. Clermont, like her husband, became violently insane. She was taken to the asylum, and she has never returned. It is said that she has visited the house at night and that many wild things are seen, and peculiar sounds are heard. The affair is creating no little excitement.

SNOW IN MISSOURI.

Trains Delayed and Telegraph and Telephone Lines Frosted.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 17.—A heavy snow storm, accompanied by high winds is prevailing throughout central and western Missouri. Telegraph and telephone wires have gone down and communication with Kansas City and other western points has been cut off since 4 o'clock this morning. Trains are late on all roads entering here.

St. Louis, Nov. 17.—The storm throughout Missouri is badly demoralizing the telegraph service. Neither the Union nor the Postal telegraph is doing any business here, and both are receiving business for Kansas City and other western points.

AN ORPHAN HOODLUM.

A Spots Republican Elements Upon the Junior Organ.

"There must have been an unusual sale for The Herald this morning," said a Republican politician last evening.

There was a good deal of anxiety to know what was the matter with the Herald and the account. Any decided expression would have led to some betting among the sports.

"The Herald has achieved the reputation of being the champion hoodlum. Every Republican is advised for consultation or election is sure to be hopelessly snowed under, and those it opposes have a dead-wood cinder on election. Its war on Rich and support of Pingree actually easily recited illustrations. In the county campaign it came out especially strong for Bismarck, and poor Jake hardly knew he was running.

"In the congressional campaign there was a long time when it was doubtful where the nomination would go. The Herald finally came out for the nomination of Bismarck and the account. Any decided expression would have led to some betting among the sports.

THE INAUGURAL BALL

Question About Holding It on Saturday Night.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—An interesting feature of the Inauguration is the inauguration of President Cleveland. The 4th of March next year occurs on Saturday. The discovery of this fact led to a discussion regarding the propriety of holding the inauguration ball Saturday night when Sunday morning was ushered in at 12 o'clock. Inquiry among the holders of the inauguration ball has shown that previous years shows that the question need not occasion concern. The inaugural ball is held in a reception, which, with rare exceptions, is brought to a close by midnight.

HILL IN THE CABINET.

Whitney Would Like to See Him There, But Says He Will Not.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—One of the closest friends of Senator David H. Hill tells the following story in connection with the cabinet question:

"You know as well as I do," said he, "that William C. Whitney can have anything he wants in Cleveland's administration. It is an almost established fact that he does not desire to enter the cabinet, nor do his friends think for one moment that he will be willing to accept a foreign mission. His large business interests, in his opinion, require his presence at home."

Mr. Whitney is very anxious to be some senator as Frank H. Hooper's successor in the cabinet. Whitney is a machine for Murphy and that there is where there is little hope of defeat.

Mr. Hill, however, is not so sure. He is a man in whom I have confidence that Mr. Whitney has suggested to Mr. Hill that he would like to see Hill in his cabinet, and that he would like to see Hill in his cabinet, and that he would like to see Hill in his cabinet.

Mr. Hill, however, is not so sure. He is a man in whom I have confidence that Mr. Whitney has suggested to Mr. Hill that he would like to see Hill in his cabinet, and that he would like to see Hill in his cabinet, and that he would like to see Hill in his cabinet.

MARKETS BY WIRE.

CHICAGO. Nov. 17.—All the leading business was reported good and the demand for money about as large as could be accommodated at 10 per cent. Some items were made as a whole under that figure and the general feeling seemed to be that 6 per cent. would be a safe rate for a loan on the remainder of the year.
